This form is a request for a Settlement Conference only, Settlement Conference and Trial or a Response to such a Request. It must be filed with the court and a copy served on all parties. You only need to file a Response (page two of this form FL-074) if you believe that your case is not ready for Settlement Conference. Your response must be served and filed no more than ten calendar days (plus five days if service was by mail) from the date of service of the Request. If your case is ready for Settlement Conference, an Order Setting the Settlement Conference will be provided to the parties. Local Rule 9.21(D) requires you to submit a Statement of Issues for Settlement Conference or Trial ten calendar days before the Settlement Conference.

I am the party/attorney for the party making this request. I hereby represent the following to the court:

To the best of my knowledge, the Requesting party has exchanged Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure, has disclosed all information required by Family Code Section 2105(b), and filed the FL-141 form.

Check A or B

- A. To the best of my knowledge, the Responding party has exchanged Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure, has disclosed all information required by Family Code Section 2105(b), and filed the FL-141 form.
- B. Responding party has not provided Petitioner with a Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure, disclosed all information required by Family Code Section 2105(b), and filed an FL-141 form. My Declaration as to good cause for proceeding with the settlement conference without the Responding party's compliance with disclosure, is attached.
