FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS REGARDING NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS 1. Do I have to tell the other person that I am requesting temporary orders?

The judicial officers require that a person who is requesting temporary orders notify the other person that temporary orders are being requested. The judicial officers want to make sure they have all the facts regarding a case before they make a decision on temporary orders.

2. What if the other person is in the Sonoma County jail? How can I give notice?

If the other person is in the Sonoma County jail, copies can be provided to the other person by delivering them to AFriends Outside@ whose offices are in the main lobby of the jail, they will arrange to have the paperwork delivered to the other person. Friends Outside does charge a small fee for this service.

If you delivered your papers by personal service on:	Petition will be considered on:
Friday, by 4:00 pm	Thursday the following week after 8:30 am
