The subsections concerning remote hearings in domestic violence and gun violence restraining order matters are adopted pursuant to Family Code § 6308(b) and Penal Code § 18123(b). As stated below, this rule sets forth the remote proceeding protocols for civil case types.

B. General Provisions Regarding Remote Appearances

1. Unless otherwise outlined in this rule or ordered by the Court, trials and evidentiary hearings will be held in person. A judicial officer may order that a specific evidentiary hearing or trial be conducted by remote appearance, in whole or in part. In that instance, any party objecting to the remote hearing or trial shall file their objection as provided in Rule 3.672(h) or, at the Court's discretion, may object at the time the matter is discussed with the Court, if insufficient time otherwise exists to comply with Rule 3.672(h).
2. Unless an in-person appearance is expressly ordered by the Court or otherwise required by law, attorneys and self-represented parties are permitted to appear at a non-evidentiary hearing via remote technology rather than in person. Parties who appear remotely will be deemed to have requested a remote appearance without having previously filed a Notice of Remote Appearance and received an approved Order Regarding Remote Appearance. In any hearing not set explicitly by the Court to be conducted by remote appearance, a party may appear remotely upon a judicial officer's finding under Rule 3.672(j)(2) of good cause, unforeseen circumstances, or that the remote appearance would promote access to justice.
3. Any party intending to appear remotely for non-evidentiary proceedings must provide notice to all parties or persons entitled to receive notice before the commencement of the hearing. The notice may be given informally by phone, e-mail, or text. No advance notice to the Court is required before the date of the hearing.
4. A judicial officer may terminate a remote hearing and continue the matter to a future in-person hearing according to Code of Civil Procedure § 367.75(b) or Rule 3.672(d).
5. A remote hearing is subject to all Local Rules and Rules of Court governing decorum in the courtroom. A remote hearing is also subject to all laws and rules governing confidentiality, photographing, and courtroom proceedings recordings. No one appearing remotely may record, photograph or reproduce any hearing, or any part of a hearing, including any screenshots. Any person who violates this provision shall be subject to all sanctions provided under the law for a like action in an in-person hearing.

1. Parties in civil case management, civil law and motion and other non-evidentiary civil matters (such as minor's compromise petition) may appear remotely as set forth above.
2. The Court waives notice of parties appearing remotely for these matters. Parties do not need to file a Notice of Remote Appearance or obtain an Order Regarding Remote Appearance. The party appearing remotely must provide notice to all parties or persons entitled to receive notice before the commencement of the hearing. The notice may be given informally, including by telephone, e-mail or text message.

D. Civil Evidentiary Hearings and Trials

1. For evidentiary hearings and jury or bench trials, including small claims trials, parties and witnesses must appear in person unless the Court has granted prior express authorization for a remote appearance.
2. The time frames and procedures for remote appearance requests and oppositions are set forth in Rule 3.672(h).

E. Small Claims

All small claims trials and evidentiary hearings will be held in person. Upon at least ten (10) days advance request of a party, or in the Court's discretion, a judicial officer may order that a specific evidentiary hearing or trial be conducted by remote appearance, in whole or in part. In that instance any party objecting to the remote hearing or trial shall file their objection as provided in California Rules of Court, Rule 3.672(h) or, at the Court's discretion, may raise the objection at the time the matter is discussed with the Court, if insufficient time otherwise exists to comply with Rule 3.672(h).

A remote hearing is subject to all Local Rules and Rules of Court governing decorum in the courtroom. A remote hearing is also subject to all laws and rules governing confidentiality, photographing and recordings of proceedings in a courtroom. No one appearing remotely may record, photographs or reproduce any hearing or part of a hearing, including any screenshots. Any person who violates this provision shall be subject to all sanctions provided under the law for uh like action in an in-person hearing.

F. Unlawful Detainer Matters

All unlawful detainer matters, including law and motion matters, shall be presumed to require an in-person appearance. To obtain permission to appear remotely in any unlawful detainer matter, the procedures identified in section (D) above, addressing evidentiary proceedings, apply equally to unlawful detainer cases.

G. Temporary Restraining Orders in Civil Harassment, Elder Abuse, Workplace Violence, and School Site Violence Matters

Ex parte requests for temporary restraining orders will be ruled upon on the pleadings without a hearing. All later proceedings set for hearing shall be presumed to require an in-person appearance. J. Domestic Violence and Gun Violence Restraining Orders

1. Instructions for remote appearances in domestic violence and gun violence restraining order hearings will be posted on the Court's webpage: <http://sonoma.courts.ca.gov/self-help/domestic-violence>.
2. The Court designates the judicial assistant for the department hearing each respective case as the phone number for the public to call to obtain assistance regarding a remote appearance. The designated judicial assistant phone numbers will be posted on the restraining order webpage above. These phone numbers will be staffed from 30 minutes prior to the start of the court session at which the hearing will take place and during that court session.

K. Criminal Matters

Please see Rule 8.15.

L. Juvenile Justice

1. Unless otherwise outlined in this rule or ordered by the Court, trials and evidentiary hearings will be held in person. A judicial officer may order a specific evidentiary hearing or trial be conducted by remote appearance.
2. Unless an in-person appearance is expressly ordered by the Court or otherwise required by law, attorneys, and parties are permitted to appear at a non-evidentiary hearing via remote technology rather than in person. Parties who appear remotely will be deemed to have requested a remote appearance. In any hearing not set specifically by the Court to be conducted by remote appearance, a party may appear remotely upon a judicial officer's finding of good cause, unforeseen circumstances, or that the remote appearance will promote access to justice.
3. Pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code § 676(a), the Court may allow persons deemed to have a direct and legitimate interest in a particular case or the work of the Court to appear remotely. The Court must apply the same confidentiality requirements to a remote juvenile justice proceeding as apply to a justice proceeding conducted in person.

4. Any party intending to appear remotely for non-evidentiary proceedings must provide notice to all parties or persons entitled to receive notice prior to the commencement of the hearing. The notice may be given by phone, e-mail, or text. No advance notice to the Court is required before the date of the hearing.
5. A judicial officer may terminate a remote hearing and continue the matter to a future in-person hearing.
6. A remote hearing is subject to all Local Rules and Rules of Court governing decorum in the courtroom. A remote hearing is also subject to all laws and rules governing confidentiality, photographing, and courtroom proceedings recordings. No one appearing remotely may record, photograph, or reproduce any hearing or any part of a hearing, including any screenshots. Any person who violates this provision shall be subject to all sanctions provided under the law for a like action in an in-person hearing.

M. Juvenile Dependency

1. Rule 3.672(i) shall apply to Juvenile Dependency matters.
2. All confidentiality requirements applicable to in-person Juvenile Dependency proceedings shall apply equally to remote hearings. Suppose the Court cannot ensure that a remote appearance will have the privacy and security necessary to preserve the confidentiality of the proceeding. In that case, the judicial officer may order any person to appear in person and elect to terminate a remote hearing and continue the matter for a later in-person appearance.

2. Refrain from and prohibit biased conduct. In all courtroom proceedings, refrain from engaging in conduct and prohibit others from engaging in conduct that exhibits bias based on age, ancestry, color, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, physical or mental disability, political affiliation, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status, including whether that bias is directed toward

1. The individual may submit a written Notice of Concern to the Presiding Judge or Court Executive Officer, which identifies all courtroom participants and the specific behavior or conduct occurring in the courtroom of concern.

3. To the extent possible and unless disclosure is required by law, the Court shall protect the confidentiality of the noticing party, the person who is the subject of the notice, and other interested persons.
4. The focus of this procedure is on incidents of concern:

Bias based on age, ancestry, color, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, physical or mental disability, political affiliation, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status;
 - b. Whether that bias is directed toward counsel, court personnel, witnesses, parties, jurors, or any other participants; and
 - c. Where the incident does not warrant discipline but requires education and correction.
5. Courtroom activities constituting legitimate advocacy when matters concerning age, ancestry, color, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, physical or mental disability, political affiliation, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status which are relevant to issues in the courtroom proceeding are exempt from this Notice of Concern procedure.

1. With respect to any incident that if substantiated would warrant discipline against a judge, the concerned individual may file a formal complaint with the Commission on Judicial Performance.

RULE 2 RULES APPLICABLE TO SMALL CLAIMS CASES AND UNLAWFUL DETAINER CASES

2.1 SMALL CLAIMS CASES

A. Identification of Authorized Agent for Service

If plaintiff requests, and pays for, the clerk to provide service upon defendant(s) pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §116.340(a)(1) and one or more of the defendants is a business, plaintiff shall include the names(s) and address(es) of the authorized agent(s) for service, identified as such, in parentheses beneath the name of each defendant business.

B. Law and Motion

All law and motion matters in small claims actions shall be scheduled as designated by the Civil Division Supervising Judge. Hearing dates may be obtained as indicated in Rule 5.1.B herein.

C. Trial Setting

A trial date will be assigned by the clerk upon the filing of the Plaintiff's Claim.

Small Claims matters are heard by judges pro tempore pursuant to stipulation of the parties. Where parties are unwilling to so stipulate, the matter will be reassigned for hearing, on a different date and at a different time, before a judge or court commissioner.

D. Submitting Evidence

This provision is only applicable to those cases where the Court has granted an order permitting a remote appearance prior to the time of the small claims hearing or trial. Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §116.520, parties in a Small Claims matter have the right to present evidence and witnesses at the hearing in support of their respective positions. If an order has been issued in advance of a small claims trial or hearing, to permit a remote appearance the party appearing remotely shall send a copy of any evidence they want the Court to consider to all other parties at least 10 days in advance of the hearing date. The party who sent the evidence must be prepared to provide proof of sending the evidence if the court requests proof. The party must also submit any evidence to be considered by the Court to the court at least 10 days prior to the hearing. All evidence shall be submitted with the Exchange and Submission of Evidence Local Form SC-10.

A party who has been permitted to appear remotely by advance order of the Court, may send the exhibits to the court electronically by e-mail at SCtrials@sonomacourt.org. Exhibits that are delivered via e-mail may not exceed 10 pages, including any exhibits. This e-mail address is for the sole purpose of the submission of exhibits. Unauthorized e-mails will not be read and will be deleted without any further action being taken. Ex Parte communications shall not be sent to the above e-mail address and any such communications will not be read or considered by the assigned judge hearing the matter.

A party's failure to exchange and submit evidence to the court with proof of compliance and mailing, may result in the evidence not being considered by the court.

E. Exhibits after Trial

Upon the conclusion of the trial, the Clerk's Office will not accept additional exhibits for the Court's consideration unless specifically requested by the Court at the time of trial. Exhibits introduced in a small claims case will be destroyed in sixty (60) calendar days following the final determination of the action unless return is personally requested by the litigant and a self-addressed stamped envelope with enough pre-paid postage is submitted at the time of submission of evidence to the court or at the time of hearing.

F. Appeals

Small claims appeals will be heard as designated by the Supervising Judge of the Civil Division.

Upon the filing of a notice of appeal and payment of the required filing fees, the Clerk's Office will schedule a trial de novo.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2005, 1/1/2021, Rev and Renumbered 1/1/2023)

2.2 UNLAWFUL DETAINER CASES

A. Trial Setting

1. When a case is ready for trial any party to the action (by and through their attorney of record if represented) may file and serve a request to set the time of the trial which shall include the following trial information:
 - a. Time estimate for trial in hours or days;
 - b. Whether or not a jury is requested;
 - c. Whether there has/have been any previous request(s) for trial and the file date(s), if any; and

- d. Whether or not an official court reporter is requested at trial. Note: court reporters can only be requested by a party whose fee waiver has been previously granted and is on file (see Local Rule 3.4).
 2. Any party may (by and through their attorney of record, if represented), following notice of a request to set the time of the trial and not less than five (5) calendar days prior to the date set for trial, separately demand trial by jury. Such demand shall state whether there has been a previous request for trial and the file date (if known), whether or not an official court reporter is requested at trial and may include a separate time estimate for trial. Failure to deposit jury fees at least five (5) days prior to the date set for trial shall constitute a waiver of jury trial pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 631.
 3. Unlawful Detainer actions shall be assigned directly for trial by the clerk and without the appearance of counsel.
- B. When an unlawful detainer becomes an ordinary civil case and plaintiff has filed an amended complaint, the clerk shall re-designate the case and it shall proceed as a general civil case in either the limited or unlimited jurisdiction, as appropriate.

C. Default and Compromise

1. Presentation of Default Judgment

Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 585(d), any default judgment may be proven upon proper presentation of declarations or affidavits without appearance of the party seeking default judgment or the necessity of scheduling a hearing, unless after reviewing the application the Court requests otherwise.

2. Time Frames for Presentation of Defaults

Requests to enter default and default judgments are to be presented to the Court or the clerk when applicable no later than 90 calendar days from the filing of the complaint. If no default judgment or order granting an extension of time is on file by the 90th day from the filing of the complaint, the unlawful detainer action will be dismissed, upon the Court's own motion, without prejudice.

3. Disposition of Fictitious Defendants (Cross-Defendants)

All unnamed parties (unknown defendants as described in Code of Civil Procedure § 474) must be disposed of, i.e., dismissed with or without prejudice, prior to entry of final judgment. Failure to comply may result in any judgment being returned unsigned or in the issuance of an order to show cause entailing possible sanctions.

D. Law and Motion

All law and motion matters in unlawful detainer actions shall be scheduled on the Unlawful Detainer Law & Motion Calendar as designated by the Supervising Judge of the Civil Division. Hearing dates may be obtained as indicated in Rule 5.1.A herein. No tentative rulings will be made available for matters on this calendar.

E. Attorney's Fees

For default unlawful detainer actions, the default amount for attorney fees shall be $600.00. Any party seeking attorney fees in excess of those provided for herein shall submit a declaration for submission to the court, substantiating the extraordinary fees.

To recover attorney fees following trial of an unlawful detainer action, the prevailing party or parties must file a post-trial motion for an award of attorney fees under the applicable contract or statute.

F. Stipulations for Entry of Judgment

Any stipulation between parties that sets terms and conditions for settlement of an unlawful detainer action must include:

1. A statement, pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1385, that plaintiff will file a Request for Dismissal, Entire Action, either within 45 days of the date of the filing of the stipulation or upon some other specified date;
2. A place for the Court to set a review date at which the parties may appear if the terms and conditions are not met and upon which the Court may dismiss if the parties fail to appear and the plaintiff has not filed a Request for Dismissal as required by F(1) above;
3. If the stipulation is presented for Court approval prior to the trial date and the parties do not intend to appear at trial, an order dropping the case from the trial calendar;
4. A clear and concise statement of the ex parte application, opposition, and order process by which remedies are available to either party in the event of a default on any of the terms and conditions of the stipulation. The clerk will not enter judgment upon declaration of the judgment creditor.

The use of Judicial Council Form UD-115 entitled "Stipulation for Entry of Judgment" may be used.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 7/1/2004, 1/1/2007, 7/1/2008, 1/1/2021, 1/1/2023, 7/1/2024)

RULE 3 RULES APPLICABLE TO COURT REPORTING SERVICES

3.1 ELECTRONIC RECORDING

Pursuant to Government Code § 69957, in limited civil actions and criminal misdemeanor and infraction proceedings, the court, at its sole discretion, may utilize electronic recording as a means of generating a verbatim record of proceedings. In those instances, court reporters will not be provided. The court may utilize electronic recording to generate a verbatim record of the hearing, trial, or proceeding where a party has been granted a fee waiver in a limited civil action or criminal misdemeanor or infraction proceeding and has timely filed a request for a court reporter, but a court reporter is not reasonably available. (See Local Rule 3.4)

(Rev. 7/1/2026)

3.2 NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF COURT REPORTING SERVICES

General information concerning the availability of court reporters is set forth in the Court's Notice of Availability of Court Reporting Services, which is posted in the Clerk's Office and on the court's website.

3.3 UNAVAILABILITY OF COURT-PROVIDED COURT REPORTERS

Unless otherwise noted in the Court's Notice of Availability, pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.956, the Court does not provide court reporters for hearings in the following civil case types:

1. Limited Civil
2. Unlimited Civil
3. Probate including Guardianships
4. Family Law, except as mandated, such as requests to withdraw consent to an adoption, child testimony in chambers, and petitions to free a minor from parental care and control.

3.4 REQUEST FOR COURT REPORTER WHERE FEE WAIVER HAS BEEN GRANTED

If a party has been granted a fee waiver in an action, the party may request a court reporter pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.956(c)(2)(A) and (B). The court must provide a court reporter or electronically record the hearing in limited civil actions or criminal misdemeanor or infraction proceedings, if the requesting party has timely-filed a request for a court reporter, but a court reporter is not reasonably available.

(Eff 7/1/2022, Rev. 7/1/2026)

3.5 PROCURING PRIVATE CERTIFIED COURT REPORTER

- A. Any party who desires a verbatim record from which a transcript can later be prepared, may procure the services of a qualified private certified court reporter pro tempore to report any scheduled evidentiary hearing or trial (see Government Code § 70044 and California Rules of Court, Rule 2.956). The Court does not provide referrals to private court reporting service providers and does not have any contractual or employment obligation related to pro tempore reporters hired by the parties for this purpose. It is the party's responsibility to arrange for and pay the outside reporter's fee for attendance at the proceedings, but the expense may be recoverable as part of the costs, as provided by law. (See California Rules of Court, Rule 2.956(c).)
- B. The party procuring the qualified court reporter must provide a proposed order appointing the reporter for the Court's signature. The proposed order can be presented to the Court at the start of proceedings for the day.
- C. The Court hereby adopts the Appointment of Official Reporter Pro Tempore as Local Form RP-001 for mandatory use.
- D. Nothing in this order alters the right of a litigant who has been granted a fee waiver under Government Code § 68631 et seq., to a court-provided court reporter. Such litigant should submit Judicial Council form FW-020 to the court as far in advance of trial as possible once the need for a court reporter is determined.
- E. In the event the parties proceed to trial without a court reporter, the parties' attorneys, or any self-represented parties, shall be required at the end of every day of trial to create and stipulate to a settled statement of facts encompassing the trial proceedings for that day. The settled statement of facts must consist of a condensed narrative of trial proceedings for that day and include a concise factual summary of the evidence and the testimony of each witness. (California Rules of Court, Rule 8.137.)

(Adopted 7/1/23)

RULE 4 RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL CIVIL CASES

4.1 DIFFERENTIAL CASE MANAGEMENT

- A. The following rules are adopted to advance the goals of the Trial Court Delay Reduction Act set forth in Government Code §§ 68603, et seq., and addressed by §§ 2.1 and 2.2 of the Standards of Judicial Administration and California Rules of Court, Rules 3.710 et seq., all incorporated herein by reference. It is the intent of this court that these rules satisfy the court's obligations under the Trial Court Delay Reduction Act, and the requirement of the California Rules of Court that the court adopt local rules on differential case management consistent with the California Rules of Court and the Standards of Judicial Administration.
1. Upon the filing of every complaint the clerk shall provide to the plaintiff Notice of the Case Management Conference, and information on how to obtain an ADR packet, which plaintiff is required to serve with the complaint.
 2. Any party who adds a party to the proceeding must inform the new party of any pending dates set by the court including a pending case management conference date, a pending settlement conference date and a pending trial date.

- D. Uninsured and Underinsured Motorist Actions. At the time the complaint or petition is filed, or within 30 days after discovering that the case is an uninsured or underinsured motorist case, plaintiff/petitioner shall file an ex parte application with a supporting declaration and proposed order requesting that the case be designated as an uninsured or underinsured motorist case. To allow for arbitration of the plaintiff/petitioner's claim, the Civil Case Management Rules do not apply to a case designated by the court as "Uninsured Motorist" or "Underinsured Motorist" as defined in Government Code § 68609.5 and Insurance Code § 11580.2 until 180 days from the date of the designation. The clerk's office shall set a Case

A copy of the Notice must be served with the summons and complaint, and with any cross-complaint.

Appearances will be required or dispensed with by the court as indicated in the tentative rulings. Where appearances are required by the Court, or no tentative ruling is indicated on a case, then all principal trial counsel and self-represented parties shall appear at the conference at the time scheduled in any notice, order to show cause, or as otherwise directed by the Court.

4.9 TRIAL AND TRIAL-RELATED MOTIONS

A. Trial Calendar

Trials, both long cause and short cause, will be called on such dates and at such times as shall be set by the Assigned Judge. In-person attendance by counsel at the call of the Trial is mandatory unless excused by the Assigned Judge.

B. Continuances

Continuances of trials may be granted, upon good cause show, by stipulation of the parties or upon written notice of motion. Failure to complete discovery does not constitute good cause. Any motion for continuance must be calendared for hearing before the Assigned Judge on the Trial calendar at least seven (7) calendar days in advance of the trial date, unless good cause is shown for a shortening of such time. Stipulation of trial counsel by itself does not constitute good cause for granting a continuance.

Requests for continuance of trials or trials de novo in small claims cases must follow the procedure set out in Code of Civil Procedure § 116.570.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 7/1/2004, 7/1/2011, 1/1/2014, 1/1/2021; Renumbered 1/1/2016; 7/1/2018, Renumbered 1/1/2023, Rev. 7/1/2024, 1/1/2025)

4.10 PRETRIAL MATTERS AND COMMENCEMENT OF TRIAL

A. Uniform Procedures

The procedures prescribed in this rule apply uniformly to trials throughout the Civil Division except in expedited jury trials under Code of Civil Procedure § 630.01 et seq., which are governed by California Rules of Court, Rules 3.1545–3.1552. Judges may, in the exercise of discretion, order different procedures based on the particular requirements of an individual case.

B. Trial

Each case is called for trial on the Friday as specified by the court in its Notice of Trial as served on all parties. Unless otherwise ordered, parties and their counsel are to appear in-person and should expect and be prepared to begin the trial of a case on the first date of Trial.

C. Duty to Meet and Confer

At least seven (7) court days before trial, all attorneys of record and unrepresented parties must meet and confer in a good faith effort to reach agreement and enter into written stipulations or written joint statements on the matters described in subdivisions (D) and (G) of this rule. All such stipulations and statements must be filed, and courtesy copies delivered, at the time and in the manner stated in subdivisions (D) and (G). A stipulation or joint statement may be filed instead of any submission of an individual party that this rule requires or permits.

D. Pretrial Documents

By 3:30 p.m. on the sixth (6th) court day before trial or as otherwise ordered by the court, the parties must file the documents listed below with the Civil Clerk's Office, serve the documents on all parties, and deliver endorsed copies to the chambers of the Assigned Judge the same day. Timelines for the submittal of pretrial documents for matters coming before the court under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act are set by the judge presiding over that matter at their discretion.

1. Any proposed voir dire questions which, due to unusual or sensitive circumstances, a party requests the judge to ask prospective jurors.
2. Any proposed jury questionnaire.
3. A joint list, in alphabetical order, of all witnesses to be called, indicating which party intends to call each witness. The list should also note any anticipated issue concerning a witness that might require the court's attention, including but not limited to scheduling constraints, health problems, security precautions, and the need for a translator or interpreter.
4. A joint estimate of the length of the trial.
5. A joint neutral statement of the case to be read to the jury.

On the day that motions in limine are heard, prior to that hearing, each party must show all other parties all electronic presentations, demonstrative exhibits, charts, diagrams, photographs, enlargements, and all other tangible things that the party intends to use in the party's opening statement and/or during trial. Any party who objects to any such material must make the objection at the hearing of the motions in limine, and the judge will rule on all such objections presented.

F. Trial Briefs

The court finds trial briefs to be very helpful and encourages their submission. Any trial brief must be filed with the Civil Clerk's Office, and an endorsed filed copy delivered to the Assigned Judge, by 3:30 p.m. six (6) court days before trial. This does not preclude supplemental briefs on specific issues that arise during the trial. Timelines for the submittal of trial briefs for matters coming before the court under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act are set by the judge presiding over that matter at their discretion.

G. Jury Instructions and Verdict Forms

1. In every jury trial, before the first witness is sworn, six (6) court days prior to the first day of trial, each party must deliver to the judge, and serve upon all other parties, all proposed jury instructions on all applicable law disclosed by the pleadings, and all proposed verdict forms.

5.2 ORDER OF EXAMINATION CALENDAR

- A. The Order of Examination Calendar will be heard as designated by the Supervising Judge of the Civil Division. No tentative rulings will be made available for matters on this calendar.

B. Representation of Corporation

Corporations in civil actions must be represented by legal counsel at the order of examination hearing.

C. Judgment Debtor's Failure to Appear

If the party named in the Application and Order for Appearance and Examination fails to appear at the time and place specified in the order, and proper proof of service of the order has been filed with the clerk, a warrant for the arrest of the party may issue. The judgment creditor must prepare a declaration and warrant for the judge's signature. Such declaration and warrant must be delivered to the Clerk's Office within six (6) months of the issuance order. A new Order of Examination will be required if the warrant is not issued within the six (6) months' time period. Subsequent warrants must be accompanied by an original declaration.

All warrants must be served by the Sheriff's Department.

E. In-Custody Judgment Debtors

The Sheriff's Office will notify the Clerk's Office if the judgment debtor is taken into custody. Within their discretion, the judge presiding at the misdemeanor calendar hearing shall effect the release of the judgment debtor upon the condition that they appear at a designated Order of Examination Calendar in the future. The clerk shall give notice to the judgment creditor of the date, time, and location of that hearing by mailing a copy of the minute order of the bail hearing.

F. Warrant of Attachment/Contempt of Court Hearings

A fine will be ordered upon the court's finding of contempt for failure to appear at the Order of Examination. Bail posted by an individual other than the judgment debtor will be returned to the depositor and the judgment debtor will be ordered to pay the contempt fine to the court. Failure to pay said fine may subject the judgment debtor to further sanctions.

The moving party must also deliver, on the day of the filing, a courtesy copy of the documents (these do not need to be file endorsed) to the respective department assigned to the matter. In the event the motion is not so resolved, then the moving party must file not less than two (2) court days before the hearing date a declaration pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 2016.040 setting forth facts applicable to the meet and confer conference. Orders of Examination are exempt from the requirement of this section.

- B. Oral argument of all counsel and parties in any law and motion matter shall not exceed 20 minutes in length.
- C. When the moving party fails to appear at the date and time scheduled for a hearing, the matter may be dropped, continued or ruled upon at the discretion of the Assigned Judge with or without the request of the responding party(ies).

Sonoma County Superior Court Rules, to wit: family law matters, domestic violence and civil harassment matters.

- D. Each application must also include a declaration showing that there is a compelling need for emergency handling of the ex parte application and for the requested relief and why it should not be processed routinely by the Civil Clerk's Office.
- E. If the application is opposed, the attorneys must meet and confer prior to presentation of the ex parte.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2006, 1/1/2007, 7/1/2008, 1/1/2014, 7/1/2017; Rev. and renumbered 1/1/2021, Rev 7/1/2024)

5.7 TRANSCRIPTS OF ADMINISTRATIVE RECORDS

Whenever any transcript of a deposition or other testimony is an attachment, the relevant part must be highlighted in such manner that calls attention to the relevant testimony.

Any administrative record filed in conjunction with a special proceeding as described in Code of Civil Procedure, Part 3, Title 1, must be thermal bound separately, along the left margin, in volumes of not more than 300 pages.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2005, 1/1/2007, 7/1/2007, 7/1/2008)

5.8 ORDERS AFTER HEARING OR UPON EX PARTE MOTION

Each proposed order must specify on the face page, immediately below the case number, the date the matter was heard and the name of the judge who presided at the hearing.

It is the court's policy not to sign proposed orders pertaining to the filing of amendments to pleadings, amended pleadings, or to the filing of cross-complaints or complaints-in-intervention, which require the clerk to remove and file the copy of the proposed pleading attached to the motion as required by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1324. Proposed orders granting leave to file amendments to pleadings, amended pleadings, cross-complaints, or complaints-in-intervention must specify that the original of the proposed pleading will be submitted for filing following the granting of the order.

A. Protective Orders (Discovery, etc.)

Any language incorporated in such an order that pertains to the filing with the court of material under seal must state that the party submitting confidential material to the Court to be filed must put that material in a sealed manila envelope no smaller than 9" x 12" and no larger than 10" x 13"; that the envelope must have on its back (on the unsealed side) the warning: "CONFIDENTIAL: SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER," the case number and caption, and the title(s) of the paper(s) enclosed; that in parentheses beneath the title(s) of the paper(s) as they appear on the envelope, there must be a reference to the confidentiality order, by file date and title [as, for example, (FILED UNDER SEAL PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER FILED JANUARY 1, 2000)], under which the papers are submitted. These papers must then be maintained in the Court's regular public file but in their sealed envelopes. If the papers are exhibits to a motion or other paper, the manila envelope, with the stated identifying features, must not be attached to the principal paper, but there must be reference made in the motion, memorandum of points and authorities, or declaration, as appropriate, to the confidential materials filed under seal.

B. Orders to Consolidate

An order on motion to consolidate must specify which case number is to be the lead case. In any instance in which the order does not specify the lead case number, the clerk must designate as the lead case the one with the lowest file number in the highest jurisdiction.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 7/1/2005, 1/1/2007, 7/1/2008, 1/1/2014, 1/1/2021)

E. Hearings and Tentative Rulings

1. Notices of Hearing

Notices of hearing on cases scheduled for hearing on the Regular Probate Calendar shall indicate the time for the commencement of the calendar.

2. Tentative Rulings – Regular Probate Calendar

During the court day preceding each weekly Regular Probate Calendar, by approximately 2:00 p.m., the Court will issue a tentative ruling for each matter noticed on such calendar. The tentative ruling may be obtained online on the court's website at www.sonoma.courts.ca.gov between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. on the day before the hearing (Click on the "Online Services" tab on the home page, select "Tentative Rulings" in the drop-down menu, and then click on the link to "Probate"). The Tentative Rulings will also be posted outside the probate department the day of the hearing. For tentative rulings by phone, please call (707) 521-6607.

- a. Parties who do not object to the tentative ruling need not appear at the hearing, unless the ruling requires appearances, or another party has requested a hearing pursuant to the procedure in subdivision (b) below.
- b. Any interested party who wishes to be heard in relation to the tentative ruling must call 707-521-6893 and leave a brief message that includes the name and telephone number of the party calling and the case name and number. Any interested party who wishes to be heard in relation to or opposition to a tentative ruling must also notify the attorneys for all represented parties as well as all unrepresented parties of their intent to appear. Notifications to the court and all attorneys and unrepresented parties must be completed no later than 4:00 p.m. on the court day immediately preceding the day of the hearing.
- c. Unless notification has been given as provided in (b), above, the tentative rulings shall become the rulings of the Court, on the day of the hearing. Signed orders on approved matters are generally available at the Probate Clerk's Office within hours after the hearing and are not immediately available after the hearing.

3. Appearances

No appearances are required for pre-approved matters unless an interested person has asked to be heard in response to the tentative ruling and has given the required notice of such a request.

(Rev. and Renumbered 1/1/2024, Rev. 7/1/2024)

F. Contested Matters

1. Written Objections

- a. Before the Court will conduct a hearing in any contested proceeding, the party(ies) opposing or objecting to a petition, accounting or other matter scheduled for hearing shall file verified, written objections specifying the grounds for such objection or opposition. If oral objections are made at a hearing, the court may continue the matter in order to have the objections submitted in writing. This rule does not apply to matters coming before the court under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act.
- b. Interested persons who oppose the granting of a petition for appointment of a guardian are encouraged to use Sonoma County form PR-9 (Objection(s) to Appointment of Guardian of the Person) to file objections.

2. Meet and Confer Requirement

In the event of any contest or objection to any petition on the probate calendar, the parties or their respective attorneys shall make a reasonable and good faith attempt to informally resolve the controversy at a face-to-face conference, if possible, otherwise by telephone conference, before any hearing of the contested petition. If such resolution is not possible, then each party shall file a Statement of Issues as provided in 3, below.

3. Statement of Issues or Settlement

At least seven (7) court days before the hearing, each party shall either (1) notify the Probate Clerk in the Superior Court Clerk's Office or the probate department that the controversy has been resolved; or (2) file and serve the Statement of Issues.

Each Statement of Issues must:

- a. Indicate that the parties or their respective attorneys have met face-to-face or, if that is not possible, have participated in a telephone conference to discuss the issues in dispute,
 - b. identify the substantial issues in the controversy, with references to any supporting evidence and/or legal authority,
 - c. include each party's opinion of any barriers to settlement,
 - d. provide an estimate of the time requirement for the hearing or resolution,
 - e. include each party's opinion as to the appropriate method for resolving the controversy (i.e., mediation, arbitration, short cause trial, etc.).
4. Contested Matters on Probate Calendar
When the hearing on a contested matter is estimated to be 20 minutes or less, the hearing will be held before the Probate Judge on the Regular Probate Calendar if time permits. Otherwise, the matter will be set for an extended hearing.
5. Transfer to Trial Calendar
If the hearing on a contested matter is estimated to exceed twenty (20) minutes or a jury trial is demanded, and counsel appear at the probate calendar, the matter may be transferred to the short cause calendar or may be assigned directly to one judge for all purposes.

(Rev. 1/1/2021, 7/1/2024)

G. Ex Parte Applications and Stipulated Petitions

1. Ex Parte Procedure
 - a. Same Day Ex Parte Matters

If a party has reason to believe that an order is urgently needed to prevent irreparable harm or immediate danger to person or property, that party may file a Same Day Ex Parte application for relief. Filing fees must be paid, and in the event a new case is being commenced a case number must be assigned, before a party presents any application for ex parte relief.

An order granting or denying a Same Day Ex Parte matter is generally available for pickup at 2:00 p.m. on the day it is presented.

b. Drop-Off Ex Parte Matters

Ex Parte Applications not based on an urgent need to prevent irreparable harm or immediate danger to person or property may be submitted to the Court as a “Drop-Off Ex Parte Matter” where otherwise authorized by statute, Rules of Court, court order, or these rules. All Drop-Off Ex Parte Matters must include “Drop-Off Ex Parte Matter” on the caption. Failure to include “Drop-Off Ex Parte Matter” on the caption will cause the pleading to be reviewed as a Same Day Ex Parte application and will be denied if it does not meet the standard for a Same Day Ex Parte application.

The following matters are expressly authorized to be presented as Drop-Off Ex Parte Matters:

- i. Approval of a stipulation, including a stipulated petition to approve settlement agreement;
- ii. Petitions for letters of special administration;
- iii. Stipulated applications for a continuance of a hearing or trial;
- iv. Matters authorized to be presented to the court ex parte by statute or Rules of Court (with citation to authorizing statute or Rules of Court);
- v. Requests to advance a hearing date and/or shorten time;
- vi. Applications to correct an order;
- vii. Applications to increase bond;
- viii. Petitions to appoint a guardian ad litem;
- ix. Petitions for final discharge and order;
- x. Petitions for allowance or rejection of a creditor’s claim (by attorney or personal representative); or
- xi. Petitions requesting court appointment of counsel.
- xii. Petitions for appointment of successor trustee where all parties consent and waive notice. The ex parte petition for appointment of successor trustee must address the issue of bond, even if Petitioner’s position is that no bond is required, and must specifically address the legal basis for appointing the proposed trustee under California Probate Code § 15660, et seq.

The Court does not consider a Probate Code § 850 Petition (Heggstad petition), Probate Code § 15403 or § 15409 petitions as drop off ex parte matters. The Court may, with a sufficient showing of exigency per California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1202(c), consider such as an emergency same day ex parte, presuming they are also accompanied by waiver(s) of notice and consent(s).

An order granting or denying a Drop-Off Ex Parte Matter is generally available for pickup at 2:00 p.m. on the day which is five (5) court days after it is presented.

c. Hearing May be Required

The Court may deem that any matter presented on an ex parte basis, whether opposed or unopposed, requires a hearing. If a hearing is required, the matter will be set by the Court on the regular probate calendar on a date chosen by the Court. The Court may shorten time or overset an existing probate calendar on its own motion if it deems such is necessary.

If a hearing is required, the party presenting the ex parte application will be notified of the date and time of the hearing and that party shall be required to provide notice of the date and time to all parties entitled to notice within two (2) court days thereafter, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

2. Timing of Ex Parte Matters

Applications for ex parte relief are accepted Monday-Friday and reviewed in chambers. No personal appearance is required to request or oppose an ex parte matter.

The application and all supporting documents must be filed with the Sonoma County Court Clerk's Office, Probate Division, before 10:00 a.m. to be considered presented on that day. The judicial officer may decline to consider untimely applications on the merits.

Papers in opposition to an ex parte matter must also be filed with the Sonoma County Court Clerk's Office, Probate Division, by 10:00 a.m. on the day the ex parte application is presented.

3. Contents of Application and [Proposed] Order

An application for any ex parte order must be verified and must contain sufficient evidentiary facts to justify the issuance of an order. Conclusions or statements of ultimate facts are not sufficient, and a foundation must be shown for the declarant's personal knowledge.

Except where a Judicial Council or local form that includes an order is used, an application for an ex parte order must be accompanied by a separate order which is complete in and of itself and which specifies all relief ordered by the Court. For example, it is not sufficient for such order to provide merely that the application has been granted, or that the sale of property set forth in the petition has been approved.

4. Notice and Special Notice

Unless otherwise expressly provided for by applicable statute or rule of court, the form and content of notice to all interested parties and parties who requested special notice shall be provided in accordance with the California Rules of Court applicable to civil ex parte matters, including timely notice of the date, time, and place for the presentation of the ex parte matter. The application must be accompanied by a declaration identifying all persons entitled to notice under the applicable sections of the Probate Code, California Rules of Court (including special notice), or these rules, and it must evidence compliant notice or set forth the facts and legal authority upon which the applicant requests an order dispensing with notice.

6.3 RULES REGARDING DECEDENTS' ESTATES

A. Duties and Liabilities of Personal Representative

The Sonoma County Superior Court does not require filing of the Confidential Supplement to Duties and Liabilities of Personal Representative, as authorized in Probate Code § 8404(a).

B. Continuance to Permit Filing of Contest

When a petition for the probate of a Will is called for hearing and an attorney or party appears and orally objects and declares that a written contest will be filed, the Court may continue the hearing for a reasonable length of time with the condition that if such written contest has not been filed prior to the continued date, the hearing will proceed as if no objection had been made by said attorney or party, unless the court finds good cause exists for a further continuance.

C. Estates with Pour-Over Wills

When the beneficiary of a will is the trustee of a trust, Item 8 of the Petition for Probate shall identify all trustees and all beneficiaries of the trust by name and by stating whether each individual is a trustee or a beneficiary.

D. Claims of Personal Representative and Attorneys of Record

1. Noticed Hearing

A noticed petition for approval of a creditor's claim of the personal representative or of their attorney of record is required, except as provided below. All parties must receive at least fifteen (15) days' notice of the hearing. The creditor's claim shall be complete with approval signed by all personal representatives in the proceeding.

2. Ex parte approval

A petition and creditor's claim for any of the following claims that comply with the above rule (except for the fifteen (15) day notice requirement) may be presented and considered by the court ex parte.

- a. The claim is for reimbursement of funeral and last illness expense, and proof of payment is attached to the claim;
- b. The claim, together with all other claims of that personal representative or attorney, except for reimbursement of funeral and last illness expenses, is less than $2,500.00;
- c. A written approval signed by all persons whose interest might be affected by the approval is attached to the claim;
- d. The personal representative has complied with the provisions of the Independent Administration of Estates Act with respect to the proposed payment of said claim; or
- e. A claim is for an amount certain and based upon a prior court order, which is attached to the creditor's claim.

E. Content of Orders of Distribution

Every order of distribution, whether or not an accounting has been waived, must set forth specifically the manner in which the estate is to be distributed by showing each distributee's name and a description of the property, including the full legal description and assessor's parcel number for real property, and the amount of cash (as of a date certain) to be distributed. Descriptions must be complete and must not require reference to the petition or to any extrinsic document.

F. Accountings

1. General Format

Accounting format details and contents shall be in strict conformance with California law, including but not limited to the Probate Code and California Rules of Court.

2. Supplemental and Amended Accounts

A supplemental account in a decedent's estate shall include only receipts and disbursements occurring since the ending date of the last filed account. Generally, a supplemental account is not to be used to amend or correct the last filed account. An amended account may be filed to amend or correct such last account. Any supplemental or amended account shall be noticed for hearing unless the Court by order dispenses with notice.

G. Reserves After Final Account

If a petition for final distribution requests a reserve in an amount greater than $2,500, the petition shall include a statement specifically describing the need for the reserve amount. The statement shall include an estimate of the amount of costs, taxes, or other expenditures for which the reserve is requested.

(Renumbered 1/1/2021)

H. Spousal Property Petition/Succession to Real Property Petition

1. The petition must identify and present evidence of the current vesting, title, and character (community property or separate property) of each asset.
2. Where the petition affects title to real property, a copy of the deed(s) showing vesting at the decedent's date of death or at the time of filing of the Petition for a Particular Transaction pursuant to Probate Code § 3100 et seq. must be attached to the petition.

(Eff. 7/1/2021)

6.4 CONSERVATORSHIPS

A. Temporary Conservatorship

Where the petitioner believes that the proposed conservatee will suffer harm or substantial loss prior to the hearing date on the Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator, the petitioner may also file a Petition for Temporary Conservatorship. In all such cases, the Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator must first be on file in the Clerk's Office and a case number must be issued before a Petition for Temporary Conservatorship will be heard.

1. Regular Notice: Normally, a Petition for Temporary Conservatorship will be set for hearing at the time normally set aside for probate matters allowing for at least ten (10) days' notice of the petition.
2. Emergency Circumstances Ex Parte Application: In very rare circumstances where the proposed conservatee is in immediate and grave danger of physical or irreparable financial harm, petitioner may notice the Petition for Temporary Conservatorship to be heard on the ex parte calendar.

B. Required Documents in Conservatorship Cases

In addition to the pleadings and papers normally required in a conservatorship matter, the following special instructions apply:

1. Appointment of Public Defender

The Sonoma County Public Defender is appointed, by this rule, to represent the proposed conservatee in all initial conservatorship cases without prejudice to a substitution of counsel of the proposed conservatee's choosing. No additional order is required.

2. Appointment of Court Investigator

The Sonoma County Court Investigator shall be appointed, by this rule, for all conservatorship cases (excluding LPS conservatorships). No additional order is required.

3. Conservatorship Handbook

The required DUTIES OF CONSERVATOR AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF HANDBOOK (Judicial Council Form GC 348) shall be submitted with the first filed Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator. The HANDBOOK FOR CONSERVATORS is available at: <https://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/handbook.pdf>.

4. Notification of Change of Contact Information

Any time the conservator or guardian or the conservatee or ward has a change of contact information, the Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact Information shall be filed and served on the Office of the Probate Court Investigator. (Judicial Council Form MC-040)

5. Confidential Contact Information Form

The Confidential Contact Information Form must be filed with all petitions for any of the following: appointment of a conservator, including appointment of temporary, successors or co-conservators, all petitions for approval of accounts of a conservatorship estate, and when filing a waiver of account. The Confidential Contact Information Form shall be marked as "CONFIDENTIAL". (Sonoma County Local Form PR-12).

(Rev and renumbered 7/1/23, Rev. 1/1/2024, 1/1/2025)

C. Independent Powers under Probate Code § 2591 et. seq.

The provisions of this section apply both to conservatorship and guardianship matters. For simplicity only, the terminology for conservatorships is used.

1. Necessity Required

The conservator of the estate has broad powers to act for the conservatee's benefit under the Probate Code. The Court will generally limit a grant of Independent Powers under Probate Code § 2590 et seq. to specific factual situations where necessity requires independent powers.

2. Special Rules for Independent Powers

The following rules shall apply to all cases involving requests for independent powers, except LPS conservatorships:

- a. Temporary Conservatorship of the Estate: Independent powers will be granted in a temporary conservatorship of the estate only in unusual situations upon a showing of good cause.
- b. Factual Showing: Any request for independent powers shall be accompanied by an affidavit or declaration setting forth the facts which explain why: (1) the power requested is needed to administer the estate or protect the conservatee; and (2) granting such power would be to the advantage, benefit and in the best interests of the estate and the conservatee.
- c. Specific Enumeration of Powers: Each power must be described in detail. Quoting the specific language of the subsection enumerating the requested power is preferred. It is not sufficient to incorporate by reference Probate Code § 2591 in the petition.
- d. Real Property Description: Where the power to sell real property is requested, the request shall describe the real property to be sold by the street address or legal description, and whether or not the property is the conservatee's home or former home. The notices of the request shall include the street address.
- e. Court Confirmation of Real Property Sales: Where the independent power to sell real property is granted, the Court will normally require the sale be returned to the court for confirmation. This requirement may be waived by the Court upon showing of good cause.
- f. Enumerated Special Powers in Order and Letters: Any special powers granted must be set forth in detail in the Order and in the Letters of Conservatorship. In addition, if the power to sell real property has been granted, the Order and Letters shall describe the property to be sold by street address or legal description, and whether court confirmation of the sale is required.

To avoid delay in approval of fees, counsel may want to submit time records at the time of filing their fee request.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 1/1/2005, 1/1/2008, 1/1/2021, 1/1/2023, 1/1/2024, Renumbered 7/1/2024, 7/1/2026)

8.4 PROTECTION OF CONFIDENTIAL PERSONAL INFORMATION

In accordance with Penal Code section (hereinafter PC §) 964 and the public policy set forth therein, prosecutors and law enforcement agencies should not submit police reports, arrest reports or investigative reports containing “confidential personal information” (as defined in subdivision (b) of PC § 964) of victims or witnesses to the court in support of a criminal complaint, indictment, or information; or in support of a search or arrest warrant. Rather, prosecutors and law enforcement agencies should present the court with written declarations from law enforcement officers that are devoid of this confidential personal information.

The parties may submit copies of police reports, arrest reports or investigative reports that are redacted of all “confidential personal information” of victims and/or witnesses. The redacted copies of these reports provided to the court must be attached to a declaration attesting to the fact that the information redacted was “confidential personal information” of victims and/or witnesses as defined in PC § 964. The parties must also provide an unredacted copy of the documents, which, upon review, shall be sealed, and retained by the court, if the redacted material is determined to be “confidential information” as defined in PC § 964(b).

In instances where “confidential personal information” of victims and/or witness cannot be redacted for purposes of clarity or completeness, but must be provided to the court, prosecutors and law enforcement may request the court seal a portion or all of the warrant and its components, police report, arrest report or investigative report. The Court may grant the sealing order if it makes the following express findings in a written order: 1. The document requested to be sealed contains “confidential personal information” as defined in PC § 964; 2. The confidential personal information must be provided to the court for clarity and completeness of the criminal complaint, indictment, information, or search/arrest warrant application; and 3. No less restrictive means exist, such as the procedures set forth in paragraphs #2 and #3 of [this Local Rule], to protect the confidential personal information while preserving clarity and completeness of the criminal complaint, indictment, information, or search/arrest warrant application. If the sealing request also seeks protection of information that is not “confidential personal information” as defined by PC § 964, the Court will consider that portion of the request pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.550. All documents reviewed, as well as orders signed, will be retained by the court.

All agencies should bear in mind that the court will not undertake the task of redacting any confidential personal information of victims or witnesses from documents submitted for the court's consideration. Rather, the burden to ensure that this information is not included within any documents presented falls squarely on the agencies preparing and presenting them to the court. In this respect, the court may exercise its discretion to accept or reject a police, arrest or investigative report containing confidential personal information that is submitted in support of a criminal complaint, indictment, or information; or in support of a search or arrest warrant.

9.3 SANCTIONS IN RESPECT TO RULES

A. In General

Failure to comply with any applicable rules may subject the noncomplying party to sanctions.

B. Responsibility

If a failure to comply with an applicable rule is the responsibility of counsel and not of the party, any penalty must be imposed on counsel and must not adversely affect the party's cause of action or defense.

C. Notice and Procedure

Sanctions must not be imposed under this rule except upon notice in a party's motion papers or upon the court's own motion after the court has provided notice and an opportunity to be heard. A party's motion for sanctions must (1) set forth the applicable rule that has been violated, (2) describe the specific conduct that is alleged to have violated the rule, and (3) identify the attorney, law firm, party, witness, or other person against whom sanctions are sought. The court on its own motion may issue an order to show cause that shall (1) set forth the applicable rule that has been violated, (2) describe the specific conduct that appears to have violated the rule, and (3) direct the attorney, law firm, party, witness, or other person to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed against them for violation of the rule.

D. Award of Expenses

In addition to the sanctions awardable under Rule 9.3 A., the court may order the person who has violated an applicable rule to pay to the party aggrieved by the violation that party's reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, incurred in connection with the sanctions motion or the order to show cause.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 7/1/2005, 7/1/2009, 7/1/2010, 7/1/2012, 1/1/2022, 7/1/2024)

9.5 COLLABORATIVE LAW CASES

The Sonoma County Superior Court recognizes the unique nature of family law disputes and the fact that family law issues are best resolved by the parties reaching agreement over such critical matters as child custody, support, and property, without engaging in the traditional adversarial litigation process. The Sonoma County Superior Court strongly supports the use of the collaborative law process as well as other alternative dispute resolution tools for the purpose of developing both short-term and long-term workable agreements that meet the best interests of the entire family, particularly the children whose lives will be affected by the resolution.

- A. No case will be entitled to a designation as a “collaborative law” case unless all of the following requirements are met:
 1. The parties have signed a collaborative law stipulation and order that provides for a full and candid exchange of information, that advisory counsel shall not subsequently represent either party, and the prohibition for further work on this matter by all experts and other professionals retained for the process, if the use of the collaborative law procedures are terminated.
 2. All documents filed in the case are to be submitted by the parties as self-represented parties. Notwithstanding this provision, the attorneys may appear by agreement as counsel of record for the sole purpose of filing a bifurcated judgment regarding status, the final judgment and/or other final documents reflecting the agreement of the parties, upon the entry of which they shall immediately withdraw.

3. No contested matters are presented by a Request for Order that require judicial resolution.
4. The term collaborative law case is included in the caption of any document filed with the court from and after the filing of the collaborative law stipulation and order.

B. The collaborative law process is by its very nature, a series of intense settlement negotiations, therefore:

1. Other than as may be agreed in the collaborative law stipulation and order, no evidence of anything said or any admission made for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to the collaborative law proceeding is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the evidence must not be compelled in any non-criminal proceeding.
2. Other than as may be agreed in the collaborative law stipulation and order, no writing, as defined in Evidence Code § 250 that is prepared for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to a collaborative law case is admissible or subject to discovery, and disclosure of the writing must not be compelled in any non-criminal proceeding. This does not include documentary items such as account statements, bank statements, records of title, etc., that reflect on the existence and value of the assets or debts.
3. Other than as agreed in the collaborative law stipulation and order, all communications, negotiations or settlement discussions between participants in the course of a collaborative law proceeding must remain confidential.

C. As to any case designated as a collaborative law case, the court will:

1. Consider collaborative counsel to be advisory and not attorneys of record, except as provided in paragraph A.2. of this rule.
2. Refuse to set any hearings, impose discovery deadlines or enter scheduling orders.
3. Give priority in processing of stipulated orders.
4. Provide notice and an opportunity to be heard prior to any dismissal based upon a failure to prosecute or for delay.

- D. The designation of a case as a collaborative law case is totally voluntary and requires the agreement of all parties. The collaborative law case designation will be removed upon stipulation or filing, and service of a termination election as provided in the collaborative law stipulation and order. In the event collaborative law procedures are terminated, any party filing a Request for Order shall include a request for scheduling of a case management conference prior to the hearing.
- E. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, collaborative law cases are governed by the Family Code and the California Rules of Court.

(Eff. 1/1/2005; Rev. 7/1/2005, 7/1/2009, 7/1/2010, 1/1/2013, 1/1/2017, 1/1/2021)

9.7 ACCEPTANCE OF HANDWRITTEN PLEADINGS

9.8 LIMITED LEGAL REPRESENTATION [Repealed]

9.9 DOCUMENTS NOT TO BE FILED WITH THE COURT

In family law cases only, notices of unavailability shall not be filed with the court.

(Eff. 1/1/2005; Rev. 7/1/2005, 7/1/2009; Retracted 7/1/2010; Reinstated 7/1/2011)

9.10 CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

A. Purpose

The purpose of a Case Management Conference is to provide judicial management in family law matters in order to expedite the process of the case, reduce expense of litigation, and focus on early resolution by assisting the parties in establishing processes and procedures to bring a case to a final disposition in an effective and timely manner pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 5.83 and Family Code § 2450.

At the Case Management Conference, the court may:

1. Provide early neutral case evaluation;
2. Suggest Alternative Dispute Resolution;
3. Bifurcate issues and set these issues for trial;
4. Make special referrals such as co-parent counseling;
5. Order completion of Declarations of Disclosure if they have not been timely exchanged pursuant to Family Code § 2104(f);
6. Limit, schedule or expedite discovery, including disclosure of expert witnesses
7. Appoint joint experts upon stipulation of the parties and order allocation of payment for experts;
8. File stipulations the parties reach on temporary issues or that narrow the other issues;
9. Schedule a hearing on issues that are critical to the progress of the case (e.g. appointment of minor's counsel, appointment of experts);
10. Set the case on a dismissal calendar for failure to serve (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 583.210) or failure to adjudicate (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 583.310), unless CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 583.161 applies;
11. Review other case management options under Family Code § 2451 with counsel, their clients and self-represented parties;
12. Take such other actions and make orders regarding case flow management which would tend to promote a just and efficient disposition of the case.

B. Requests to Reset/Advance/Set Case Management Conference

The Court may set a Case Management Conference by issuing a Setting Order (FL-073). Parties, upon a showing of good cause, may request to set, reset or advance the Case Management Conference by submitting the Case Management Conference form (FL-092). Setting Orders shall provide at least 45 days advance notice of the court date. All parties must complete the Case Management Conference Statement portion of form, FL-092, and have it filed and served on all parties at least 10 calendar days prior to the Case Management Conference.

9.12 EX PARTE/EMERGENCY FAMILY LAW ORDERS

It is the policy of this court not to grant ex parte/emergency orders changing the status quo with respect to child custody, parenting plans or residence exclusion without a very strong factual showing of grave danger or severe detriment to the child prior to the time the issues can be properly set for a noticed hearing with both parties present and afforded an opportunity to be heard. The court may in its discretion refer the matter to Family Court

Services for a child custody recommending counseling appointment prior to signing an order shortening time for the prompt calendaring of the matter at the earliest available option on the Court's calendar.

A. Declarations

1. Factual Basis

All declarations shall be based upon personal knowledge of the declarant. Declarations containing hearsay are subject to a motion to strike the whole unless the hearsay is substantiated by a supplemental declaration by the hearsay declarant.

2. Extraordinary Relief

A very specific declaration must be given when extraordinary relief is sought. A specific declaration includes the dates of incidents, detailed descriptive facts and specific harm threatened or actually caused. Conclusions, feelings, wishes or fears alone will not support an ex parte/emergency order. Extraordinary relief includes without limitation: temporary custody of children, temporary possession and use of personal property, limited contact with children, or removal of one party from the family residence.

3. Declarations Upon Ex Parte/Emergency Application

Ex parte/Emergency orders are sometimes rendered without giving an opportunity for the parties to be personally seen and heard. The temptation to indulge on paper in unrestrained exaggeration is ever-present. Concealment of relevant facts is a danger. Accordingly, attorneys, parties and persons employed to type pleadings (typing services) shall adhere to the highest standards of full disclosure in preparing the declarations in support of ex parte/emergency orders.

4. Change of Status Quo

THERE IS AN ABSOLUTE DUTY TO DISCLOSE THE FACT THAT A REQUESTED EX PARTE/EMERGENCY ORDER WILL RESULT IN A CHANGE OF THE STATUS QUO.

B. Notice

Notice of the intent to file an ex-parte/emergency request for temporary family law orders must be given to the opposing party or attorney by 10:00 a.m. one court day before the application is scheduled to be reviewed by the assigned judicial officer. This notice requirement can be waived by the court if (1) notice is impossible, or (2) notice would frustrate the very purpose of the order, or (3) immediate and irreparable harm could be suffered if notice were given. Local Form FL-016 and Judicial Council form FL-303 have been adopted for optional use in advising the Court that you have given notice to the other side. See either form for information for applicants. A completed FL-016 or FL-303 must be submitted to the court when your request for temporary/emergency orders is submitted. This section shall not apply to requests pursuant to the Domestic Violence Prevention Act per California Rule of Court, Rule 5.165.

C. Delivery of Application

The application, including all declarations, attachments, and documents intended for court review shall be delivered to the opposing party/attorney by 11:00 a.m. one court day before the application is scheduled to be reviewed by the assigned judicial officer. A blank copy of Local Form CA-106 must be delivered to the opposing party/attorney with the applicant's documents. This section shall not apply to requests pursuant to the Domestic Violence Prevention Act per California Rule of Court 5.165.

D. Opposition

Opposition papers must be received by the Court on the day the application is scheduled to be reviewed by the assigned judicial officer. A copy of the opposition papers shall also be served personally, by fax or e-mail (only if the party is represented by counsel or a self-represented party has consented to email service) on the opposing party or attorney by 9:30 a.m. on the day of judicial review. Local Form CA-106 has been adopted for optional use in submitting opposition. Information for the opposing party is included with form CA-106.

E. Judicial Review

Judicial review of the applications for ex parte/emergency family law orders shall be conducted Monday through Friday beginning at 10:00 a.m. by a judicial officer designated by the Presiding Judge.

At the discretion of the judicial officer, oral argument may be taken. If this is to occur, the court will notify counsel or parties by noon on the day of the review. If counsel or parties wish to appear by telephone, their pleadings shall so indicate.

F. Set Aside of Ex Parte/Emergency Order (Domestic Violence and Family Law)

If a responding party requests an ex parte/emergency order be set aside prior to the date set for hearing on the Domestic Calendar, notice shall be given to the moving party in the same manner as described in Sonoma County Local Rules, Rule 9.12 and 9.13. The judicial officer may order an earlier hearing date or modify the orders on a proper showing in lieu of setting aside the orders.

(Eff. 7/1/2005; Rev. 1/1/2007, 7/1/2007, 1/1/2008, 1/1/2009, 7/1/2009, 1/1/2010, 7/1/2010; Revised and Renumbered 7/1/2011 – formerly Rule 9.11; Rev. 1/1/2012, 7/1/2012,

7/1/2013, 7/1/2014; 7/1/2015; Renumbered 1/1/2016, 1/1/2019, 7/1/2024, 7/1/2026)

9.13 DOMESTIC AND CHILD SUPPORT CALENDARS

1. Domestic and Child Support matters shall be heard as designated by the Presiding Judge. A copy of the current designation may be obtained from the Clerk's Office or the Sonoma County Superior Court website at www.sonoma.courts.ca.gov. Domestic matters shall be heard by a judge, court commissioner, or persons specified by the Presiding Judge.
2. Matters will be scheduled for a hearing date, time and courtroom at the Clerk's Office upon the filing of moving papers.
3. Every party who files a Request for Order or Responsive Declaration involving child custody or visitation may also complete and file a Family Law Child Custody and Visitation Questionnaire (FL-045). The purpose of the questionnaire is to provide the Child Custody Recommending Counselor and the judicial officer with focused information regarding the child(ren). When this form is completed, it must be filed and served to the other party.
4. Unless agreed to by all parties, contempt proceedings shall not proceed at the initial calendar date. The moving party need not have witnesses available at that time. The initial calendar date shall be for the appointment of counsel, if necessary, entry of plea, and the setting of a trial date.

B. Responsive Pleadings

Responsive pleadings to a Request for Order shall be filed and served within the time provided by law. An order shortening time for service may specify a different time for filing responsive documents.

An exception to these pleading rules may be allowed by the court to allow more time to file a response if the matter is an initial Request for Order on a new matter or a post judgment motion or for good cause shown. If additional time is permitted to file a response, the moving party may request that the hearing be continued.

Sanctions for failure to comply with the rules may include the hearing being conducted as a default matter, or if a continuance is requested, the party whose pleadings are untimely filed may be required to pay the costs of the other party's appearance.

C. Meet and Confer Requirements

No case on the Domestic Calendar, Case Management Calendar, Settlement Conference Calendar, Trial Calendar, or the Child Support Calendar will be heard unless and until ALL THE PARTIES, COUNSEL, AND THE LOCAL CHILD SUPPORT AGENCY (when involved in the case) have met and conferred, face to face, in a good faith effort to resolve all issues. All relevant documents shall be exchanged by all the parties, their counsel, and the local child support agency while conferring, absent good cause to the contrary.

The requirement to meet and confer may be satisfied by a meeting on the day of the hearing prior to the case being heard.

Failure to meet and confer may result in the matter being dropped from calendar or continued, or rejection of documents not so exchanged, or other appropriate sanctions. Contempt proceedings shall not be subject to this rule.

D. Continuances on Domestic and Child Support Matters

Stipulated continuances prior to the court date will be allowed a maximum of two (2) times. Thereafter, a court appearance is required to request a continuance. The party(ies) requesting a continuance after two continuances has/have already been granted, shall be required to show good cause and/or an emergency. All requests beyond the maximum two (2) will be delivered to the judicial assistant for the assigned judicial officer to review.

To request a continuance, a Notice of Stipulated Continuance (Family Law) Local Form FL015 must be completed and executed by all parties or their attorneys and the continuance fee must be submitted to the family law clerk no later than noon (12:00 p.m.) two (2) court days prior to the hearing date. Signatures transmitted by facsimile transmission (fax) are acceptable.

If a party is unable to submit Local Form FL015, to the court by noon (12:00 p.m.) two (2) court days prior to the scheduled hearing, then good cause and/or an emergency must be shown to the court on the day of the hearing. Furthermore, a courtesy call to the assigned judicial assistant is required by 3:00 pm one (1) court day prior to the scheduled hearing. The content of the call shall be limited by providing only notice that an in-court continuance will be requested and that good cause and/or an emergency will be presented.

Orders to show cause and motions shall be heard and resolved within four (4) months of the original hearing date absent a showing of good cause and/or an emergency.

E. Continuances on the Title IV-D Calendar

Requests for continuances on the Child Support calendar may be effected via Notice Of Stipulated Continuance pursuant to the rules above, OR may be made via personal appearance on the scheduled hearing date. Parties who wish to have child support matters continued must contact the Department of Child Support Services to verify available calendar dates. There is no fee for continuing a child support matter on this calendar.

F. Dropping a Case from the Domestic or Child Support Calendars

The following matters may not be dropped without a written stipulation covering the status of existing court orders or upon leave of the Court:

2. Child custody and visitation parenting plans or orders which have been issued in conjunction with a domestic violence restraining order and transmitted to the Department of Justice through the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications Systems (CLETS).
3. Any matter in which a Responsive Declaration has been filed seeking affirmative relief on the pending issues

G. Financial Matters

1. If the moving party is seeking only Family Code § 271 fees (and no other financial relief), the moving party need not file an Income and Expense Declaration. However, a party objecting to an attorney fee request based on their inability to pay attorney's fees shall be required to file an Income and Expense Declaration.
2. The Income and Expense Declaration shall have the following documents attached:
 - a. W-2's or 1099 forms if the income tax return is unavailable; and
 - b. Last three (3) pay stubs.
 - c. Self-employed individuals shall attach a profit and loss statement for the preceding twelve (12) months, or other appropriate time period, at least as detailed as the IRS form Schedule C.

In addition, if more than three (3) months have elapsed since the filing of the Income and Expense Declaration, self-employed individuals shall prepare a supplemental profit and loss statement, again at least as detailed as the IRS form Schedule C, for the period of time between the ending date of the profit and loss statement attached to the Income and Expense Declaration and the time of the hearing. Any supplemental profit and loss statement shall be delivered to the other party and to the Court no later than three (3) court days preceding the hearing date.

3. The parties shall also exchange the last two (2) years income tax returns, including all attachments. If the court determines that it wants to retain the tax returns they shall be sealed and maintained as a confidential record of the court pursuant to Family Code § 3552(c).
4. In the event that depositions are necessary in connection with a Request for Order relating to financial matters, the deposition of any party may be bifurcated and taken as to financial issues without violating the statutory limitation of a single deposition, provided the notice of taking deposition specifies that only financial matters will be investigated and that the deposition will be adjourned to a later date for all other issues. This procedure also may be applied to a deposition regarding issues which have been bifurcated for trial.

9.14 MEDIATION AND CHILD CUSTODY RECOMMENDING COUNSELING

The purpose of the Mediation and CCRC session is to reduce the acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop a custody/visitation plan which ensures minor child(ren)'s frequent and consistent contact with their parents, when it is in their best interest. All parties shall make a good faith effort to arrive at an agreement regarding child custody and visitation before scheduling appointments with Family Court Services ("FCS"), and before the court hearing, except in those cases where domestic violence or other restraining orders have been issued or are pending a hearing, or where there are allegations of child abuse or neglect currently under investigation.

The appointed counsel shall submit invoices for payment on a monthly basis. The Court uses a fiscal year that operates from July 1st - June 30th. Request for payment by appointed counsel must be submitted on Local Form FL-021, Declaration and Order for Payment of Court Appointed Minor's Counsel Fees, within the fiscal year that the services were performed, or the invoice will not be paid. The amount shall be paid by the real parties in interest, other than the child, in proportions the Court deems just.

If the Court finds that the real parties in interest are unable to afford counsel, the amount shall be paid out of the general fund of the county.

All requests for payment are subject to judicial review. If the charges are deemed excessive by the reviewing judge, charges may be reduced or disallowed.

(Eff. 7/1/13; Rev. 7/1/14, Renumbered 1/1/2016; 1/1/2018, 7/1/19, 1/1/2021, 1/2022, 7/1/2024, 1/1/2025, 7/1/2025, 7/1/2026)

9.15 CHILD SUPPORT AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT

A. Guidelines for Child and Spousal Support

1. Child support shall be awarded in accordance with Family Code § 3500 et seq. and shall be determined by the use of a Judicial Council approved computer-generated calculation that complies with the formula set forth in Family Code § 4055.

2. Temporary spousal support shall be awarded in accordance with Family Code §3600 et seq. and may also be determined by the use of a computer-generated calculation that applies the “Alameda Rule”.

The “Alameda Rule” provides:

- a. In cases in which there is no child support, the guideline shall be 40% of the net income of the payor minus 50% of the net income of the payee.
- b. In cases in which there is to be child support, the guideline shall be 35% of the payor’s net income, after deducting the child support amount, minus 40% of the payee’s net income.
- c. If the amount produced is a negative number, the spousal support is zero.

B. Computer Generated Support Calculations

In all matters where child or temporary spousal support is an issue, an approved computer-generated support calculation and explanatory declaration shall be filed, setting forth the assumptions and calculations utilized by that party to determine gross and net income figures, the amounts of child and spousal support calculated pursuant to current state law and/or guidelines, and any other assumptions used in calculating the support. If it is contended by either party that the guideline or presumed level of support is inappropriate, that party's declaration shall set forth their calculation of the amount alleged to be proper and the reasons therefor. The support calculations and explanatory declarations shall be signed by the party or their attorney.

If a support modification is at issue, the parties shall indicate on their respective proposals the date and amount of the order that the court is being asked to modify.

All orders after hearing, including stipulations, that contain child and/or temporary spousal support provisions, including orders for $0 support, shall have attached a computer-generated support calculation setting forth the guideline amount and the assumptions used by the court in determining the support amount. If the parties do not agree upon a single calculation, each party may attach a computer-generated calculation. The Court accepts the use of XSpouse as an appropriate computer-generated support calculator.

The Family Law Facilitator is available to assist self-represented parties in preparing support calculations. Support calculation software can be found at the Sonoma County Law Library, or for child support only, online at www.childsupport.ca.gov/guideline-calculator.

C. Reimbursement Issues

Request for reimbursement of out-of-pocket costs for health care and/or childcare must include a summary detailing the cost paid and reimbursement requested. Copies of evidence/exhibits in support of the request for reimbursement shall be submitted with the moving papers.

In addition, the parties shall submit a completed Child Support Case Registry Form (Judicial Council form FL-191) with the order. This form is not required if the local child support agency is an intervener in the case.

- E. The Court shall set a compliance calendar date within 90 days after the hearing to assure the Order After Hearing is filed.
- F. In accordance with Local Rule 9.4.B.2, for cases in which both parties are self-represented, the Court may direct the Family Law Facilitator/Self Help Center staff to complete Judgment documents based on settlements reached during Settlement Conferences at court, or after Trial. The Family Law Facilitator/Self Help Center is not limited to ten (10) days in which to draft the Judgment.
 1. After Settlement Conference, if the parties are not at court to review and sign the Judgment, the draft shall be mailed to the parties, who shall have twenty (20) days from the date the drafted Judgment is mailed in which to approve or refuse to sign the drafted Judgment.
 2. If the Judgment is approved by the parties, they shall cooperate in signing the Judgment and any other necessary documents and submit them for filing prior to the compliance date. The parties may use the service of the Family Law Facilitator/Self Help Center staff for assistance in signing and submitting the Judgment documents. Once the Judgment is filed, the compliance date shall be dropped.
 3. If either party refuses to approve the drafted Judgment, the refusing party shall provide the other party, in writing, with an itemization of objections and a proposed alternative to the drafted judgment.

All references to exhibits or declarations in supporting or opposing papers must reference the number or letter of the exhibit, the specific page, and, if applicable, the paragraph or line number.

Any request for judicial notice must be made in a separate document listing the specific items for which notice is requested. A party requesting judicial notice must provide the court and each party with a copy of the material requested to be judicially noticed. If the material is part of a file in the Superior Court of California, County of Sonoma, the party must specify in writing the part of the court file sought to be judicially noticed.

If a proposed order or judgment is submitted, it must be lodged and served with the moving papers but must not be attached to them.

D. Meet and Confer Conference

The parties, and attorneys, if any, shall meet and confer in a good faith effort to resolve all of the issues in the case pursuant to Sonoma County Local Rules, Rule 9.13. The meet and confer session may take place by telephone conference call. The meet and confer shall occur in a timely fashion so that the parties will be prepared to file a declaration regarding compliance with California Code of Civil Procedure § 2016.040 no later than five (5) court days prior to the date set for the hearing. All relevant documents must be exchanged by the parties while conferring, absent good cause to the contrary.

E. Hearings, Tentative Rulings and Oral Arguments

1. Commencing at 2:00 p.m. on the court day preceding each Law and Motion calendar, the court will cause to be recorded a tentative ruling (if available) on each motion set on the next day's Law and Motion calendar on the court's website <http://www.sonoma.courts.ca.gov>. For tentative rulings by phone, please call (707) 521-6607. The tentative ruling shall become the ruling of the court, unless any party desiring to be heard so advises the judicial assistant for the designated family law judicial officer no later than 4:00 p.m. on the court day preceding the Law and Motion calendar, and further advises the judicial assistant for the designated family law judicial officer that such party has notified all other parties of their intention to appear. Where appearance has been required or invited by the court, oral argument may be presented.

2. Evidence received at a law and motion hearing shall be by declaration and affidavit and by request for judicial notice without testimony or cross-examination, except as allowed in the court's discretion for good cause shown or as permitted by these rules.

F. Continuances

Requests for continuances by stipulation or notification of dropping of law and motion matters must be presented by the parties to the clerk by 3:00 p.m. at least five (5) court days prior to the scheduled hearing date. Only one continuance by stipulation will be granted; after that, if the case cannot proceed, the court may drop the matter or require that it be re-noticed.

It is the responsibility of the moving party to notify the clerk when a pending motion may be dropped due to a stipulation or for any other reason. No hearing will be automatically dropped from the calendar by the clerk.

G. Orders of Examination

Orders of Examination shall follow Sonoma County Local Rules.

The Sheriff's Office will notify the Family Law Division Clerk's Office if the judgment debtor is taken into custody. Upon receipt of this notification, the Clerk's Office shall arrange a bail hearing. The clerk shall give notice to the judgment creditor of the date, time and location of the bail hearing by telephone.

H. Hearings on Claims of Exemption

Hearings on Claims of Exemption pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §§ 703.570 and 706.105 shall be set at such times and places as designated by the Supervising Judge of the Family Law Division. These papers shall then be maintained as confidential on the court's file.

(Eff. 1/1/2004; Rev. 7/1/2005, 1/1/2007, 7/1/2007, 1/1/2008, 7/1/2008, 7/1/2009, 7/1/2010, 1/1/2021, 1/1/2022; Renumbered 7/1/2011 – formerly Rule 9.16; Rev. 1/1/2012, 7/1/2012, Renumbered 1/1/2016, Rev. 7/1/2022, 7/1/2024, 1/1/2025)

9.20 FAMILY LAW SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

A. Family law judicial officers may refer cases for a Settlement Conference which shall be conducted by a settlement conference officer as directed by the family law judicial officers. When setting a settlement conference date, the Court may set a Case Management Conference or Master Calendar date following the settlement conference date. The Court will serve all parties personally or by mail.

B. Interdisciplinary Settlement Conference Pilot Program

For child custody matters, the Court may, in its discretion, appoint a panel to assist the Court and the parties at the settlement conference. The panel may include attorneys, mediators, and/or mental health professionals. Experience requirements for panelists may be obtained from the Family Law Supervising Judge’s Judicial Assistant or from the Court’s website. Any such panelists will be appointed to serve as the Court’s own expert pursuant to Evidence Code § 730, and the Court may find good cause to permit the panelists to review Family Court Services’ recommendations and other confidential information in the file, pursuant to Family Code § 3025.5.

C. To request a Settlement Conference, parties (or their attorney, if represented) shall submit Local Form FL-074, Request/Response to Request for Settlement Conference or Settlement Conference and Trial.

The family law judicial officer will review cases set on the domestic, Case Management Conference, Child Support, and Trial calendars. If the court determines the case could benefit from a Settlement Conference, an order will be entered and a date for the conference will be set as well as a Case Management Conference date. The court will serve all parties with an order regarding the conference personally or by mail.

Settlement Conferences will be scheduled only if Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure have been exchanged and an FL-141 has been filed by both parties or the requesting party has complied and there is good cause for proceeding without the other party having filed the Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure and FL-141.

D. The request will be reviewed by a family law judicial officer. If the judicial officer determines a Settlement Conference is appropriate, the Court will issue an order and serve the parties and/or attorneys with the order setting both a Settlement Conference and a Case Management Conference. If the party requesting a Settlement Conference and/or Trial has provided a Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure and the responding party has not, if the Court does not set a Settlement Conference and/or Trial Date, the Court will place the matter on the next scheduled

Case Management Conference at which time the Court may issue orders relating to the non-complying party's failure to exchange Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure, including, but not limited to, an order to comply, sanctions, and setting a trial and settlement conference as originally requested.

- E. Each party shall serve and submit Local Form FL-048, Settlement Conference Statement/Trial Brief prior to the conference. The Statement shall be filed ten (10) calendar days prior to the Settlement Conference. The Statement shall be stamped as "received." Failure to submit a Statement in a timely manner by both counsel for the parties shall result in the Settlement Conference being dropped. The failure of one party or counsel to submit a Statement in a timely manner may result in the Court rescheduling the conference with the same panelist and/or ordering the non-complying party to pay sanctions.
- F. Any request to drop or continue the Settlement Conference and Case Management Conference must be made to the Family Law Judicial Assistant by 5:00 p.m. at least three (3) court days prior to the conference. Absent extraordinary circumstances, making a request in an untimely manner or failing to appear at the Settlement Conference may result in the Court ordering such party to pay sanctions. The Court will not drop the Case Management Conference unless a Judgment resolving all issues is submitted to the Court prior to the Case Management Conference date.

G. Appearances

Each party and principal trial attorney for each party shall attend the Settlement Conference. The Settlement Conference shall be conducted by a Settlement Conference officer to be appointed by the court. Unless notified otherwise, appearance by all parties is mandatory. An attorney or party who fails to attend or participate effectively in any Settlement Conference may be subject to sanctions. Any alternative to personal appearance shall be pre-approved by a judicial officer. When the local child support agency has intervened in a case, the agency will determine if its appearance is necessary and notify the Court whether it intends to appear. The agency may appear by telephone.

Settlement Conferences will last a maximum of three (3) hours or until the parties are excused by the Settlement Conference officer. Parties and counsel are expected to be present for the entire Settlement Conference, with the exception of the local child support agency, which may appear for support-related issues alone. If the agency is a party to the action, any settlement involving support issues requires the agency's signature.

- H. If a complete settlement is not reached at the Settlement Conference, the case shall remain set for a Case Management Conference so the court can determine the next steps needed to resolve the case.

(Eff. 1/1/2005; Revised and renumbered 1/1/2016, Rev. 7/1/2022, 7/1/2024, 1/1/2025, 7/1/2025; 1/1/2026)

9.21 CHILD CUSTODY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

Upon the filing of the Child Custody Evaluation Report with the court, a Settlement Conference regarding the issues of child custody and parenting plan only shall be scheduled by the judicial assistant of the assigned Family Law departments to be held as soon as possible with a judicial officer. The Court may either set a Case Management Conference or Master Calendar date following the Settlement Conference. The custody evaluator may be present at the Settlement Conference when requested by either party or at the direction of the Court.

Once a Child Custody Evaluation Report has been filed with the court, the clerk shall lodge the report in the court's file as confidential and forward it to the judicial assistant of the assigned Family Law departments. The judicial assistant shall schedule a custody Settlement Conference as soon as possible. In the event of an unavoidable conflict, a party or attorney shall have a limited time to reschedule the Settlement Conference. Stipulation of the parties alone is not good cause for continuance of the Settlement Conference.

At any time following the Settlement Conference, any party may, upon noticed (Request for Order) motion timely served upon all parties, request that the court make interim orders regarding custody and/or parenting plan pending trial. The supporting declaration shall set forth with specificity the facts that support an interim change of custody and/or parenting plan orders prior to the trial. The declaration shall also address the recommendations in the custody evaluation report and set forth a specific proposal for interim orders.

A Statement of Issues for Settlement Conference or Trial (Local Form FL-002) is not required for Settlement Conferences regarding child custody and parenting plan only.

(Eff. 1/1/1997; Rev. 7/1/2005, 1/1/2009, 7/1/2009, 1/1/2010, 7/1/2010; Renumbered 7/1/2011 – formerly Rule 9.19; Renumbered 1/1/2012 – formerly Rule 9.20, Rev. 7/1/2012, 7/1/2013, 1/1/2021; Renumbered 1/1/2016; Rev. 7/1/2022; 1/1/2026)

(Eff. 7/1/2005; renumbered 7/1/2013; Rev. 7/1/2013, Renumbered 1/1/2016, 7/1/2025)

9.23 TRIAL AND EVIDENTIARY HEARINGS

These proceedings are intended to take more time so that the parties may call and question witnesses, testify themselves, and submit documentary evidence for the court to review.

A. Setting Issues for Trial

1. A family law contested cause may be set for trial by filing Sonoma County Local Form FL-074, Request/Response to Request for Settlement Conference, Trial or Default Hearing. The request for trial may be presented to the judicial officer at the domestic calendar hearing. If no hearing is pending, the request shall be served and filed with the family law clerk. The request for trial does not need to be filed as a joint request of the parties.
2. For contested causes set for trial directly from a domestic calendar, the judicial officer retains the discretion to set one or more of the following hearings: (1) Case Management Conference; (2) Settlement Conference.
3. Upon the filing of the Sonoma County Local Form FL-074 Request/Response to Request for Settlement Conference, Trial or Default Hearing, a Case Management Conference shall be scheduled before the judicial officer assigned to the case pursuant to Sonoma County Local Rule, Rule 9.2. Case Management Conference may be scheduled within thirty (30) days of the filing of the request for trial. The court shall serve all parties or attorneys with a notice of Case Management Conference.
4. If it is determined that a trial is necessary, the Court shall either set the trial date far enough out for the parties to be able to comply with the discovery deadlines set forth in the California Code of Civil Procedure, or obtain a stipulation from the parties regarding the discovery cut off dates and set the trial date accordingly.
5. No matter will be set for trial until and unless the parties have exchanged their Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure and, if required, filed form FL-141, Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure.

B. Case Management Conference

If the court sets a Case Management Conference in lieu of a Settlement Conference or trial date, the parties or attorneys shall file a Case Management Conference Statement, form FL-092, ten (10) calendar days prior to the conference. At the Case Management Conference, the court will review the status of the case and may make orders pursuant to Sonoma County Local Rule, Rule 9.10.

C. Statement of Issues

If a Statement of Issues was submitted for a settlement conference, the Statement of Issues shall be deemed the Statement of Issues for trial and filed in the court file unless, at the time of the settlement conference, the party indicates they will be filing another Statement of Issues ten (10) calendar days prior to the trial date.

If a settlement conference was not held, the parties or attorneys shall file a Statement of Issues for Settlement Conference or Trial, Sonoma County form FL002, ten (10) calendar days prior to the trial date.

The statement of issues shall include all information requested in the Statement of Issues, Sonoma County form FL002.

D. Meet and Confer

The parties, and attorneys, if any, shall meet and confer in a good faith effort to resolve all of the issues in the case. The parties, and attorneys, if any, shall state in the statement of issues the dates they met and conferred.

E. Continuing a Trial

1. Continuing Trials by Stipulation

The court, upon a showing of good cause, may grant stipulated requests to continue a trial. The stipulated request shall be submitted to the assigned judicial officer by noon ten (10) calendar days prior to the hearing date. Counsel or parties shall submit a stipulation to continue, a declaration stating why the continuance is necessary, and a proposed order for continuance. The court has discretion to determine if good cause exists to grant the continuance of the hearing. Stipulation by itself does not constitute good cause for granting a continuance.

2. Continuing Trials by Motion

A request to advance or continue a trial may be set for a hearing at the direction of the judicial officer assigned to hear the case.

F. Contempt Proceedings

The defendant in contempt proceedings shall not be required to comply with the meet and confer rules set forth above or participate in the preparation of the statement of issues.

G. Master Calendar Call

All matters to be set for trial shall be called on the assigned Master Calendar, or on another date set by the judicial officer, which will not be considered the initial trial date for discovery purposes. A matter will not proceed to trial on the date of the Master Calendar, at which time a specific date and time for commencement of the trial will be set.

(Eff. 7/1/2005; Rev. 7/1/2006, 7/1/2007, 1/1/2008, 1/1/2009, 7/1/2009, 7/1/2010; Revised and Renumbered 7/1/2011 – formerly Rule 9.20; Renumbered 1/1/2012 – formerly Rule 9.21, Rev. 7/1/2012, Rev. 7/1/2013, 7/1/2015, 1/1/2021, Renumbered 1/1/2016; 7/1/2017, 7/1/2025; 1/1/2026)

9.24 CHILD CUSTODY TRIALS

Either party may request an expedited custody trial on custody issues by filing a Request for Settlement Conference/Request for Settlement Conference and Trial, Sonoma County form FL-074. The request for trial does not need to be a joint request of the parties. The parties are not required to complete a Statement of Issues prior to trial.

The Court shall set a Case Management Conference on the domestic calendar approximately two weeks after receiving the request for an expedited child custody trial.

At the Case Management Conference, the Court may set a settlement conference, make interim orders, set the matter for trial, or make other pertinent orders. The Case Management Conference shall be continued to a date consistent with the status of the case.

9.31 SUPERVISED VISITATION PROVIDERS LIST

Court Ordered Supervised Visitation

A. Standard

Parents are solely responsible for selecting supervised visitation monitors. They must be familiar with the Standards of Practice and use good judgment when selecting a monitor.

C. Professional Supervised Visitation Provider List

TrustLine requires all caregivers listed on its registry to pass a background screening that qualifies them as childcare providers. All persons listed on TrustLine have been cleared through a fingerprint check of records at the California Department of Justice. For further verification, you may call TrustLine at 1-800-822-8490.

Providers on this list are required to provide proof of 24 hours of training in specified topics per Family Code 3200.5 (e) (10) (i—xi); (B). Additionally, providers on this list are required to complete an online course provided by the State Department of Social Services for mandated child abuse reporters.

D. Supervised Visitation Providers Not Connected To Court

Individuals on this list have signed an initial FL-324(P) form declaring they will provide supervised visitation according to the “Uniform Standards of Practice for Providers of Supervised Visitation.” Any other services the programs offer, other than supervised visitation or supervised exchange, are not covered in this declaration.

1. Although these programs must comply with the “Standards of Practice,” no governing body oversees them.
2. Each service provider may have a separate governing board and/or operating policies and procedures.
3. Sonoma County Superior Court does not monitor, evaluate, or endorse the quality of these providers. See the disclaimer below.

E. Disclaimer

The Superior Court of California, County of Sonoma, is only making this list available as a public service. This list includes qualified providers who have signed a declaration, under penalty of perjury, that they meet the Standards of Judicial Administration 5.20. G. Duplication Prohibited

Records received pursuant to these rules shall be kept confidential and shall not be duplicated or disclosed to third parties.

H. Release of Court Reports to Court-approved Mental Health Evaluators

Where the Court has ordered a mental health or psychological evaluation of a minor, the court approved evaluator shall be given a copy of the court report relating to the minor, unless the court makes a specific order to the contrary in the referral.

I. Release of Information Relating to Juveniles by Law Enforcement

Pursuant to the cases of T.N.G. v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 767 and Westcott v. County of Yuba (1980) 104 Cal.App.3d 103, this rule applies to all law enforcement agencies and officials in Sonoma County.

1. Identity of Juvenile

Arrest reports or other information in regard to the identity of individual juveniles under the age of eighteen (18) years who are the subject of juvenile court proceedings shall not be released to the press or other media or to any persons or public agency until a detention order has been made by the Juvenile Court or as otherwise provided by law.

2. Information Regarding Incident

- a. Police reports or information in regard to the incident, with exceptions noted, may be released to:
 - i. The minor, if self-represented in a juvenile court proceeding, or to their attorney pursuant to these rules;
 - ii. The District Attorney of Sonoma County;
 - iii. The law enforcement agency of the minor's residence;
- b. Other law enforcement agencies who require it for crime investigation or reporting purposes;
- c. The Sonoma County Probation Department;
- d. Court personnel;
- e. The Sonoma County Human Services Department, Division of Family and Children's Services;
- f. The parents or legal guardian of the minor, unless there is a reference to another minor in the reports (In that situation, the request must be approved by the juvenile court.);
- g. The school attended by the minor;
- h. Victims of juvenile crime (They may be given the names and addresses of the persons mentioned in the report, without reference to the status of any minor. The release of further information must be approved by the juvenile court.);
- i. Hospitals, schools, camps, Job Corps or placement agencies which require the information for the placement, treatment or rehabilitation of the minor;

- j. The persons entitled thereto under Vehicle Code §§ 20008-20012;
- k. Any coroner or medical examiner;
- l. The name of a minor 14 years of age or older taken into custody for the commission of a serious felony as defined by subdivision (c) of Penal Code § 1192.7, and the offenses allegedly committed may be released at the request of any interested party if a hearing has commenced that is based upon a petition that alleges that the minor is a person with the description of WIC § 602.

3. Commission of a Felony

If at disposition the minor was found by the court to have committed a felony, the arresting agency may send the usual information to the CII, FBI or other police agencies within California, but to no other persons or agencies (except as otherwise authorized herein).

4. Contents of Reports

This rule does not prohibit release of information by law enforcement agencies about crimes or the contents of arrest reports, except insofar as they disclose the identity of the juvenile who is subject of juvenile court proceedings.

5. Coroner's Reports

This rule does not apply to coroner's reports.

J. Inter-Agency Exchange of Information

- 1. This rule addresses the exchange of information between Family Court Services, Probation Department, Department of Human Services, Case Management Council, minor's counsel and the Court Investigator in juvenile delinquency, juvenile dependency, child custody, conservatorship, guardianship, and criminal proceedings. The disclosure of information concerning children and their parents by any of these agencies is generally prohibited by law. Nevertheless, a limited exchange of information about children or parents between these agencies in certain circumstances will serve the best interests of the child who is before the court. The court hereby finds that the best interests of children and victims appearing in court, the public interest in avoiding duplication of effort by the courts and by the investigative agencies serving the juvenile and family courts and the value of having relevant information gathered by a court agency outweighs the confidentiality interests reflected in Penal Code § 11167 and 11167.5 and WIC §§ 827 and 10850 et seq., Family Code §§ 1818, and Probate Code §1513, and therefore good cause exists for this rule.

2. The representatives of the above-listed agencies who are investigating or supervising cases involving children may orally disclose information to each other as follows:
 - a. Whether the child before the court, their parents, guardians, or caretakers are or have been the subject of a child custody, delinquency, dependency criminal or probate investigation, the findings and status of that investigation the recommendations made or anticipated to be made to the court by the agencies listed above, and the progress while under court supervision including compliance with court orders, and any court orders in existence with respect to the child, parents, guardians, or caretakers.
 - b. Any statement made by the child or the child's parents, guardians, or caretakers which might bear upon the issue of the child's best interests in the pending case.
 - c. Each agency may include this information in court reports and keep such information in their case files.
 - d. All of the above listed agencies may provide written documents to each other. These documents may include but are not limited to relevant portions of investigation notes, progress notes and summaries, and court reports containing information described in (a) and (b) above. However, child abuse and neglect reports described by PC § 11167.5 (Suspected Child Abuse Report form #S-8572), information disclosing the identity of a reporting party, or court-ordered psychological evaluations will not be exchanged between the agencies absent a court order. Copies of HSD or Juvenile Probation Department documents used by the above-listed agencies will not be made available to the public without a court order.
3. Any disclosure authorized by this rule shall be subject to the following conditions: The agency receiving the request shall first establish to its satisfaction that the inquiring party is in fact a member of an agency designated above; all information shall be provided orally; if an agency desires written documentation, it shall make written application for a court order releasing that documentation; the information gathered shall be used exclusively in the investigation being conducted and the subsequent court proceedings, and shall not be repeated to anyone not a party to those proceedings without court order.

4. Nothing in this rule is intended to limit any disclosure of information by any agency which is otherwise required or permitted by law or by other court orders.
5. The release of information by Family Court Services is subject to limitations imposed by state and local rules.

10.18 LOCAL RULES RELATING TO CHILD ADVOCATES

A. The CASA Program

The Juvenile Court may appoint a CASA to represent the interests of dependent or justice children. The CASA program must operate under the guidelines set forth in WIC § 100 et seq.; WIC § 356.5; and CRC, Rule 5.655.

The CASA program shall report regularly to the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court with evidence that it is operating under the guidelines established by the National Court Appointed Special Advocate Association and the California State Guidelines for child advocates.

B. Sworn Officer of the Court

A CASA is an officer of the court and is bound by these rules. Each CASA shall be sworn in by a Superior Court Judge/Commissioner before beginning their duties.

C. Termination of CASA

The CASA serves at the pleasure of the court, and the appointment of the CASA may be terminated by the court. Any party or the Director of the CASA program may file a motion for termination of the appointment of a CASA. The court will determine whether there shall be a hearing on such a petition.

Any CASA with a grievance concerning termination may petition the court for a hearing. Such petition shall include facts indicating that the CASA has exhausted all remedies available within the CASA program. The court will determine whether there shall be a hearing on such a petition.

D. CASA's Functions

In general, a CASA's functions are as follows:

1. To provide independent, factual information to the court regarding the cases to which they are appointed;

2. To represent the best interests of the children involved, and consider the best interests of the family in the cases to which they are appointed;
3. At the request of the judicial officer, to monitor cases to which they have been appointed to assure that the court's orders have been fulfilled.

E. Specific Duties

The court shall, in its initial order of appointment, and subsequent orders as appropriate, specifically delineate the CASA's duties in each case, which may include independently investigating the circumstances of the case, interviewing and observing the child and other appropriate individuals, reviewing appropriate records and reports, considering visitation rights for relatives, and reporting back directly to the court as indicated. If no specific duties are outlined by court order, the CASA shall discharge their obligation to the child and the court in accordance with the general duties set forth in these rules, WIC § 102, and CRC, Rule 5.655.

F. Procedures in Juvenile Justice Cases

A request for appointment of a CASA in a delinquency case may be made orally or in writing in open court or ex parte by the probation officer or any party to the case, or by the court on its own motion. If the court grants the request, it shall order that the case be referred to CASA for screening.

1. When the court grants the request for appointment of a CASA, CASA shall prepare and present to the court an order appointing the CASA.
2. Any party to the proceeding may petition the court for a hearing to reconsider the appointment.
3. CASA may petition the court to set the minor's case for a review hearing.
4. CASA reports shall be submitted to the court three (3) court days prior to the hearing for which it is prepared. CASA reports shall be copied and distributed by the CASA program to the court, District Attorney, Juvenile Probation, and the minor's attorney (or the minor's parents if unrepresented) at least two (2) court days prior to the hearing.

G. Procedures in Dependency Cases

1. A request for appointment of a CASA in a dependency case may be made orally or in writing in open court or ex parte by the social worker or any party to the case or by the court on its own motion. Unless there is opposition, the referral shall be forwarded to the CASA office for screening and assignment.

2. When an appropriate CASA has been identified, that person's name shall be submitted to the court for appointment. CASA administration shall prepare and present to the court an order appointing a CASA.
3. Any party to the case may petition the court for a hearing to reconsider the appointment.
4. A CASA report shall be submitted to the court at least three (3) court days prior to the hearing for which it is prepared. CASA reports shall be copied and distributed by the CASA program to the court, County Counsel, HSD and counsel for the parent(s) and minor(s) at least two (2) court days prior to the hearing.

H. Release of Information to CASA

Upon referral to CASA or upon appointment of a CASA, the judicial officer shall sign an order presented by CASA administration granting the CASA the authority to review specific relevant documents and interview parties involved in the case, as well as other persons having significant information relating to the child, to the same extent as any other officer appointed to investigate proceedings on behalf of the court. See also Sonoma County Local Rule 10.17.

I. Access to Records

A CASA may inspect and copy records pursuant to WIC § 107. Confidential records and information acquired by a CASA shall remain confidential and shall be disclosed only pursuant to a court order pursuant to WIC § 105.

The CASA shall present their identification as a CASA to any such record holder in support of their request for access to specific records. No consent from the parent(s) or guardians(s) is necessary for the CASA to have access to any records relating to the child. See also Sonoma County Local Rule 10.17. F.

Pursuant to WIC § 107(b), a CASA may not have access to records of a nonminor dependent without the written and informed consent of the nonminor dependent.

J. Report of Child Abuse

A CASA is a mandated child abuse reporter with respect to the case to which they are appointed.

K. Communication

There shall be ongoing, regular communication concerning the child's best interests, current status, and significant case developments, maintained among the CASA, social worker, child's attorney, attorneys for parents or guardians, foster parents and any therapist for the child.

L. Right to Timely Notice

In any motion concerning the child for whom a CASA has been appointed, the moving party shall provide the CASA timely notice.

M. Calendar Priority

In light of the fact that CASAs are rendering a volunteer service to children and the court, matters on which they appear should be granted priority on the court's calendar whenever possible.

N. Visitation Throughout Dependency

A CASA shall visit the child regularly until the child is secure in a permanent placement. Thereafter, the CASA shall monitor the case as appropriate until dependency is dismissed.

O. Family Law Advocacy

Should the Juvenile Court dismiss dependency and create family law orders pursuant to WIC § 362.4, the CASA's appointment may be continued in the family law proceeding, in which case the Juvenile Court order shall set forth the nature, extent and duration of the CASA's duties in the family law proceeding.

P. Right to Appear

A CASA shall have the right to be present and be heard at all court hearings and shall not be subject to exclusion by virtue of the fact that they may be called to testify at some point in the proceedings.

10.19 MEDICAL ISSUES

A. Medical Assessment and Treatment of Temporarily Detained Minors

In order that minors detained in the Sonoma County Probation Department and Department of Human Services temporary holding facilities, i.e. Juvenile Hall, rehabilitation facilities, Valley of the Moon Children's Home, emergency satellite homes, and alternative shelter programs, receive necessary care of their physical and mental health, and do not endanger the health and welfare of other persons in these facilities, the Sonoma County medical clinics are hereby authorized to provide the following services to all such juveniles, which services follow the "Statement of Pediatrics, Health Care for Children and Adolescents in Detention Centers, Jails, Lock-ups, and other Court-Sponsored Residential Facilities":

1. A comprehensive health assessment and physical examination;

2. Any clinical laboratory tests and limited, non-intrusive diagnostic tests such as X-rays and CT scans, the medical provider determines are necessary for the evaluation of the juvenile's health status;
3. Upon consent of the minor and the minor's counsel, screening for venereal disease. Contraceptive devices may be furnished to any minor upon the minor's request;
4. Any standard childhood immunization necessary to bring a minor's immunization up to date, and, if immunization records are unavailable, any immunizations recommended by the American Academy of Pediatrics for that child's age. However, no immunizations shall be administered before: (1) making a reasonable attempt to obtain parental or legal guardian consent; (2) checking the county immunization registry; (3) contacting the child's physician; and (4) if the child is of school age, contacting the child's school for immunization records. If a parent or legal guardian objects to the child receiving immunizations, then no immunizations shall be administered without a court order. Further, if no parent or legal guardian is available to give consent, no immunization may be given until the above conditions have been met and seven days have elapsed since the child's detention;
5. Any routine medical care required based on the results of the comprehensive health assessment, and any routine medical care required for the care of illnesses and injury, including the use of standard X-rays, stitches for cuts and casts for broken bones. Routine medical care as referred to above includes:
 - a. First aid care for conditions which require immediate assistance from a person trained in basic first aid as defined by the American Red Cross or its equivalent;
 - b. Clinic care for ambulatory juveniles with health care complaints who are evaluated and treated at sick call or by special appointment; and
 - c. Inpatient bed care for illness or injury which requires limited observation and/or management and does not require admission to a licensed hospital. Routine medical care does not include blood transfusions or inpatient care for illness or diagnosis which requires optimal observation and/or management in a licensed hospital;
6. A mental health status evaluation and necessary mental health services except no placement in an inpatient psychiatric facility shall occur absent compliance with WIC §§ 319.1, 635.1 and 5150, et seq;

7. A dental assessment, including X-rays when appropriate, and any routine dental treatment required based on the results of the dental assessment;
8. HSD social workers are authorized to sign necessary documentation and consent forms, including school medical consent forms, for the provision of medical services described in this section.

B. Authorization for Use of Psychotropic Drugs

1. The administration of psychotropic drugs to minors who are wards or dependent children shall only occur upon the authorization of a duly licensed psychiatrist, the Medical Director of Juvenile Institutions or the Director's designated physician and the court after notice to the minor's attorney, parents/guardian and/or their attorney.
2. In dependency cases, any request for psychotropic drugs must be made on Judicial Council form Application and Order for Authorization to Administer Psychotropic Medication-Juvenile JV-220. Absent an emergency, no request shall be presented to the judicial officer until one (1) business day after the request has been made available by the HSD for review by County Counsel. This requirement is in addition to the specific requirements governing psychotropic medications in CRC, Rule 5.640.

3. Initiation or Changes in Medication

The court finds that immediate and special mental health intervention may be necessary for disturbed, psychotic, depressed or suicidal minors who are impacted by the unusual life situations and the stress of institutional placements. Accordingly, the administering psychiatrist shall have the discretion to initiate the use of psychotropic drugs for a 14-day period while attempting to obtain parental or guardian consent or court authorization if after weighing the risks and benefits of such medication, the psychiatrist concludes there is no significant risk of irreversible side effects.

If the administering psychiatrist, probation officer or social worker learns that the parent, guardian or attorney for the child objects to the utilization of such drugs, the matter shall be set for hearing before a Juvenile Court judicial officer on an expedited basis.

4. Continuation of Previously Prescribed Medication

If the minor has already been prescribed psychotropic drugs, the attending physician may continue the use of those previously prescribed drugs at the physician's discretion. However, there shall be no increases in dosage without authorization pursuant to WIC § 369.5 and CRC, Rule 5.640. The parents or guardian do not have the authority to withhold consent for increases/decreases in dosage if the child has been removed from their custody and control.

5. Continuation of Medication Upon Change in Placement

Whenever a dependent child or ward of the court, or minor in placement at the Juvenile Hall or Valley of the Moon Children's Home, is moved to a new placement or to a facility pursuant to WIC § 5000, et seq., and the child is prescribed medication, the medical or other supervisor at the new placement may continue to administer that medication under supervision of the medical staff or the child's physician. No further order of the court is required and the child's medication is not to be abruptly discontinued for lack of such an order.

6. This rule does not override any inherent authority a physician may have to provide treatment and care in emergency situations (California Code of Regulations Title 9, § 853).

C. At the time of admission to the temporary holding facility, all reasonable efforts should be made to obtain the consent of the parent(s) or legal guardian for non-routine medical care while the juvenile is temporarily detained or placed out-of-home. In the event signed consent cannot be obtained, the medical clinic shall request a court order for any non-routine health care.

D. This rule applies to dependency children in court-ordered placement as well as children who are the subject of a WIC § 300 petition who are temporarily placed with relatives or non-relative extended family members.

(Revised 1/1/2007)

10.20 REQUESTS FOR MODIFICATION (Dependency Proceedings)

Requests for modification will be addressed pursuant to procedures set forth in WIC §§ 387, and 388, and CRC, Rules 5.560(d), 5.565 and 5.570.

A. Notice Regarding Change In Placement

In order to ensure that proper notice is received by parents or guardians, attorneys for parents and minor's counsel of any change in a child's placement after the original dispositional hearing:

1. Non-emergency situations:

a. If the county of placement remains the same, HSD shall give notice at least five (5) business days prior to the change in placement.

b. Prior to removal of a child from one county to another, HSD shall provide notice at least ten (10) business days unless emergency circumstances prevent such notice.

2. Emergency situations:

HSD shall give notice immediately upon determination that a move is necessary.

3. Notice may be given orally or in writing

B. WIC § 388 Petitions

This procedure relates to the notification process required before the filing of a JV-180 petition requesting modification, the procedure for approving undisputed JV-180 petitions, and the procedure for the court's consideration of disputed JV-180 petitions. These procedures are as follows:

1. Before the JV-180 is submitted to the court, the moving party must email a draft of the proposed JV-180 with supporting documentation to all counsel, parties unrepresented by counsel, and the social worker. (May be mailed if an email address is unavailable.
2. After the draft JV-180 has been served as described above, the moving party may submit the original (and one copy) of the petition to the court. Paragraph 8 must be fully completed, including a clear statement of the date(s) of service of the draft copy. The moving party does not need to complete Paragraph 10 of the JV-180.
3. When the original JV-180 is submitted, the moving party will serve all parties with a complete copy of the JV-180 being submitted and notice of the submission of the JV-180 to the court.
4. If the request is agreed to by all parties, the court may grant the petition without a hearing (CRC, Rule 5.570(d)). After the court grants the request, the court will file the JV-180 and an endorsed filed copy of the order will be returned to the moving party for service on all other parties. The moving party must subsequently file an appropriate proof of service documenting its service of the order granting the requested modification.
5. If the request is disputed, the court will mark the original as "received":
 - a. Within two (2) court days of receipt of the petition, the court will make an initial determination whether the petition meets the threshold to warrant a hearing. In order to warrant a hearing, the moving party must show: 1) changed circumstances or new evidence; and, 2) that the best interests of the child may be promoted by the proposed modification.

- b. If the court determines that the petition does not merit a hearing: 1) the court will deny the petition on its face (CRC, Rule 5.570), file the petition, and fax its ruling to the moving party, and 2) the moving party will serve the denial on all parties by fax within two (2) court days of receipt and submit an appropriate proof of service to the court. Proof of service may be mailed if a fax number is unavailable.
6. If the court determines the petition appears to merit a hearing:
 - a. The court will set the matter as the last item on the court's calendar on Wednesday or Thursday afternoon in at least two (2) weeks but not more than three (3) weeks to allow for opposition to the setting;
 - b. The court will serve notice of the hearing on all parties;
 - c. Any party opposing the setting of the petition for hearing will serve by fax and submit its opposition to the court no later than three (3) court days before the initial setting. May be mailed if a fax number is unavailable;
 - d. At initial appearance, a short oral argument regarding granting the petition will be entertained by the court. Following argument, the court will either set the matter for trial or deny the petition on the record. The petition and order will be filed at this time.

13.1 METHOD OF SELECTION

A. Source Lists

All persons selected for jury service shall be selected at random, from a source or sources inclusive of a representative cross section of the population of the area served by the court. It is the policy of the Superior Court that all persons selected for jury service shall be selected at random from the population of the area served by the Court; and that all qualified persons have an equal opportunity to be considered for jury service in the State and an obligation to serve as jurors when summoned for that purpose. This rule shall apply to the selection of jurors, and the formation of trial juries, for both civil and criminal cases, in all trial courts.

(Eff. 1/1/1997, Rev and renumbered 1/1/2025, formerly rule 13.3)

All persons are eligible and qualified to be prospective trial jurors, with the exception of those described in Code of Civil Procedure § 203.

It is therefore the firm policy and goal of this court to encourage the parties in all civil cases to explore and pursue private dispute resolution by means of an Alternative Dispute Resolution process that is appropriate to the matter and at the earliest appropriate date.

RULE 21 COMMUNICATION AMONG CRIMINAL, FAMILY AND JUVENILE COURTS

This rule is intended to comply with the provisions of California Rules of Court, Rule 5.450 regarding sharing of information between courts about the existence of criminal protective orders and child custody and/or parenting plan orders to avoid issuance of conflicting orders.
