In re Personal Recording Devices

STANDING ORDER RE RECORDING ON
PERSONAL DEVICES PER CRC 1.150(d)

In all Family Law proceedings under the jurisdiction of the Superior Court of California, County of Sonoma, parties and counsel may utilize inconspicuous personal recording devices to record the recital of the terms of their settlement agreement in their specific case. The recordings must not be used for any purpose other than as personal notes. Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 1.150 (d), advance permission from the judicial officer is required for recordings of all other proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
