Unless notification of an appearance has been given as provided above, the tentative ruling shall become the ruling of the Court the day of the hearing at the beginning of the calendar.

1. SCV-269094, Lopez v. Foley Family Wines, Inc.

This matter is on for hearing of the Court’s January 8, 2024 Order to Show Cause ordering Defendant appear and show cause why it should not be held in contempt and sanctioned for its failure to comply with the Court’s previous discovery order. The original hearing on the OSC was held on January 19, 2024, during which time counsel for Defendant appeared and offered the Court explanation for Defendant’s failure to comply. The Court granted a continuance of the OSC hearing to allow Defendant time to comply with the previous discovery order. The Court has not received any updates from either party since the January hearing. As such, the Court will assume that Defendant has now complied and, unless Plaintiff objects to this tentative ruling, the OSC will be vacated.
